Ottawa Making Final Effort To Halt Rail Tie-up

OTTAWA (CP)—Labor Minister Mitchell announced today he is summoning a conference of parties involved in the railways wage dispute in a final effort to avert a national transportation tie-up.

Following a cabinet meeting Mr. Mitchell said the disputants would be invited to meet him here at 2:30 p.m., E.D.T., tomorrow.

The statement said: "The Minister of Labor stated today that it was with regret that he learned that the direct negotiations between the railway companies and the negotiating committee representing the employees had broken down."

The conference was being called "in view of the extreme importance of preventing any delays in transportation facilities in Canada."

UNION STATEMENT

MONTREAL (CP)—Frank H. Hall, chairman of the union committee conducting wage talks with the railroads, said today the negotiations had "blown up" and a strike of 122,000 rail employees would start July 15 as planned.

"There is no chance of a settlement by direct negotiations," he said.

"The company offered us 10 cents an hour and we refused. We offered to settle at 28 cents and they declined that," he said.

Wheat Cars Jam Kansas Markets

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The greatest jam of loaded wheat cars in the history of the greater Kansas city market has brought a warning of a possible embargo on rail shipments to this rail centre of the great United States wheat belt.

Striking Seamen Board Lake Ship, Beat Sleeping Crew

TORONTO (CP)—Crew members of the Colonial Steamships flag ship Royalton were attacked and beaten with clubs while they lay in their bunks today as violence flared anew on the Welland Canal in the month-old seamen's dispute.

Four of the crew members were removed to the Welland County Hospital suffering from severe head injuries as a result of the beating police said was administered by pickets of the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.).

Another vessel, the Canada Steamship Lines Osler, was stoned by C.S.U. members when she developed steering trouble and swung crosswise in the Welland Canal.

The Colonial and C.S.L. are two of four Great Lakes shipping companies which signed contracts with the rival Canadian Lake Seamen's Union. Along with the Sarnia and Northwest Steamships companies they claimed the C.S.U., which has been endeavoring to force the lines to sign contracts with it, is led by Communists.

World Wheat Price Treaty Killed; Affects Dominion

OTTAWA (CP)—The international wheat agreement, to which Canadian producers were looking for stabilized prices and markets, collapsed today—before it even got a chance to start operating.

The final knockout blow came with Britain's announcement that she was withdrawing from the five-year pact, which would have provided a $2-a-bushel ceiling and a sliding scale of floors for world wheat prices in the five-year period beginning this Aug. 1.

However, the British action was anti-climactic. Failure of the United States Congress to ratify the agreement before it adjourned in mid-June had made it apparent the agreement was des-

Israel Asks U.N. To Halt Renewal Of Holy Land War

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—The United Nations' Security Council called an emergency meeting today to consider the Palestine situation.

Discussion of measures to stop renewed fighting in the Holy Land was expected to highlight the session. The Security Council will hear officially of the rejection by the Arab states of the plea for an extension of the truce which is set to end tomorrow.

Russia is expected to force consideration of Council action under chapter 7 of the U.N. Charter, which provides for use of sanctions by member states to halt warfare.

Earlier, Israel had appealed to the United Nations to meet the emergency of renewed warfare in Palestine.

Mose Shoertok, Israel Foreign Minister, said in a cable to Trygve Lie, United Nations Secretary-General, that the Jews accepted the Security Council plea for a 30-day extension of the truce.

Demilitarization of the whole city of Jerusalem would also be accepted, Shoertok said.

NO EVACUATION TIME

The Foreign Minister said he had been informed by Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, that the Arab governments, besides rejecting a 30-day extension, had rejected also a special plea by Lie for a three-day extension so that some 100 U.N. employees in the Holy Land could be evacuated.

Seven Canadians are on the U.N. Palestine secretariat.

An Egyptian force consisting of two armored columns and infantry had launched an offensive in southern Palestine, the cable added.

Premier Names 3 To Continue Probe Of Prices

The other members will be H. C. Bois, a Montrealer and secretary-manager of Co-operative Federer de Quebec, and Mrs. T. W. Sutherland of Parksville, B.C., who was active for many years in women's organizations in the prairie provinces.

Prof. Curtis is professor of economics at Queen's and mayor of Kingston, Ont.

The commission has been empowered to continue the inquiry started by the parliamentary committee into price increases, factors leading to price and cost increases and increased profit margins across Canada.

The commission will report to the government from time to time "as may seem advisable" and, in any case, will present a report not later than the opening of the next session of Parliament.

Malay Union Chief Shot Dead In Red Round-up

SINGAPORE (Reuter)—Troops and police shot dead Tan Kan, president of the Johore Rubber Workers' Union and former officer in the Malayan People's anti-Japanese army, in North Johore today during a gun battle.

The skirmish began when gunmen fired on the military and police patrol from a house at Sarakit.

Tan Kan, armed with a rifle, was killed when he tried to escape into the jungle with other gunmen.

Another gunman, after slightly wounding a British officer in the shoulder, was also shot dead.

Police have arrested 10 villagers.

The beginning of a British military campaign against terrorism in the Federation of Malaya was announced over the radio Wednesday night by Rt. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald, British Commissioner-General for Southeast Asia.

Further Opposition

REGINA (CP)—Saskatchewan is prepared to meet with other provinces opposing the 21-per-cent freight rate boost now that the federal government has refused to appoint a Royal Commission to investigate the entire rate structure.

Dollar Now Only Worth 34 Cents, Lawyer Reports

Your dollar today is only worth 34 cents as compared with the purchasing power of the dollar in 1900.

This was the finding of the committee on Taxation 'Law which submitted its report to the Canadian Bar Association, B.C. Section, today.

"In 1920," said Leon Ladner, K.C., "the dollar was worth 40 cents and in 1934, 61 cents," he said. "There has been a steady decline since 1934."

However, Mr. Ladner pointed out that since 1900 the hourly wage scale has increased about 10 times—from 13 cents to 1.23—but the purchasing power of the dollar has gone down to only one-third.

"In a word, the buying power of one hour's labor has now increased over 300 per cent," he said.

Charges Government Negligent In Not Repairing Dikes

Opposition Leader Harold E. Winch today opened the C.C.F. attack on the government's flood relief program, charging the government was negligent in failing to strengthen the Fraser River dikes.

Warnings of high water had been made by old-timers and government departments consistently since February of this year, he said. And, he added, engineers and dike experts had warned since the great flood of 1894, and before, what had to be done to prevent the Fraser River from causing a major calamity.

The first recorded Fraser Flood, he said, was in 1839.

Mr. Winch, red reports showing the similarity of pre-flood weather conditions in 1894 and this year and said this alone should have given the government sufficient warning to take action before the waters began to rise this year.

Two years ago, said Mr. Winch, Dean F. M. Clement of the University of British Columbia's agriculture department told the government what work was needed on the dikes of the Fraser Valley. He told of work on the Matsqui and Pitt Meadows dikes to put them in good shape.

This report was followed by another by Bruce Dixon, provincial dike inspector, in 1946. He had warned of work needed on the Fraser Valley dikes and had told of the difficulties of making levees on the land to carry out the repairs.

"It should have been the responsibility of the government to see that the work was not governed by what money the inspector could levy but what was required," and Mr. Winch.

Had the government taken heed of the warnings, the flood could not have been prevented, but the damage could have been kept down, he continued.

"This government and past governments cannot shirk responsibility," the opposition leader declared.

One break in the Matsqui dike occurred at a point where work on the dike had not been completed, Mr. Winch said.

The opposition leader also criticized the government for the slowness in replacing washed-out roads and bridges.

Premier Byron Johnson told the B.C. Legislature today that the Fraser Valley Diking Board will undertake the reconstruction of between 170 and 200 miles of dikes in the Fraser Valley.

He said the plan for rebuilding the dikes was to "provide a base sufficiently wide enough to support a gravel road 12 feet wide, with turnouts so that trucks may be used along the top of the dikes for transport of necessary materials in case of flood emergency as well as for general maintenance."

"When discussing complete reconstruction of Fraser Valley dikes with the federal government, I had in mind the provision of a diking system that would give the people of the Fraser Valley the highest sense of security that could possibly be obtained in so far as it was humanly possible so to do," he said.

Mr. Johnson's remarks came as the Fraser Valley Diking Board Act, one of five pieces of legislation to be considered at the special session of the Legislature which began Wednesday, came up for second reading.

In rebuilding the dikes, the Fraser Valley Diking Board, a joint Dominion-provincial body composed currently of F. G. Goodspeed, chief engineer of the Dominion public works department, and Bruce Dixon, provincial dike inspector, will have the advice of experts from both Canada and the U.S. A third member, who will act as chairman and will be an able administrator, will be appointed to the board by the federal government.

Advising the board in rebuilding the dikes will be Dr. Leggett, soil mechanic expert of the National Research Bureau. He has placed the resources of his research department at the disposal of the diking board.

Mr. Peckover, of the same bureau, who has been in Holland and England for some time studying diking matters, will advise the board on his return from Europe toward the end of July.

Charles Senour, chief engineering assistant of the Mississippi River Commission at Vicksburg, with whom Mr. Goodspeed has already conferred, will provide full information regarding construction of Mississippi dikes, including specifications of construction, specifications of material and sample plans.

H. Darling and E. W. Webber of the office of the chief engineer of the U.S. Army, will visit the Fraser Valley area to study post flood conditions so that they could have the benefit of their advice.

Mr. Johnson said that work was being pressed forward by Mr. Goodspeed and Mr. Dixon,

Outlines Work Under Way

He outlined work underway in connection with dike reconstruction as follows:

1. Survey parties are at Pitt Meadows, Nicomon Island.

2. A party will start at Agassiz this week-end.

3. Samples of materials are being taken by boring parties and analyzed at the University of British Columbia as to suitability for dike construction.

4. At Agassiz clearing up of drift material and leveling silt and sand deposits is under way.

5. A suction dredge is at work improving dike conditions at Pitt Meadows.

6. Water is being pumped from areas at Matsqui and the dike there has been opened to permit more rapid drainage of flooded areas.

7. A dragline is on its way to Matsqui to open up channels.

8. Pumping equipment is going forward at Sumas.

9. Parties are clearing growth from dikes at Sumas, Matsqui, Pitt Meadows, Lulu Island and South Westminster.

10. All flooded areas have been visited and additional work will proceed as conditions permit.

Mr. Johnson said that every step has been taken with a view to meeting the flood problems of the province.

Reconstruction of dikes outside the Fraser Valley will not be done by the Fraser Valley Diking Board because this work will be the full responsibility of the provincial government and will not be shared by the federal government, Mr. Johnson said.

The bill provides for the province's share of the cost of rebuilding the Fraser Valley dikes from the $5,000,000 loan and from Consolidated Revenue of the province.

Truman, Supporters Say Eisenhower Out Of Race

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Truman's aides counted Gen. Eisenhower definitely and finally out of the Democratic presidential race today.

They did this, a Truman spokesman told a reporter, after receiving private assurances from two close personal friends of the general.

Democratic Chairman J. Howard MacGrath put the "definite and final" label on Eisenhower's draft renunciation at a press conference here.

James Roosevelt, traveling toward Philadelphia with the weighty 52-vote California delegation, said at Salt Lake he thought Eisenhower still would accept the nomination if the convention opening Monday should demonstrate that the party was united behind him.

Truman's aides said some suggestions had been made that Roosevelt be named as Vice-Presidential candidate in a compromise move. They added they had rejected this proposal.

Tax Relief Urged For Flood Victims

Farmer victims of the Fraser Valley floods should have their taxes paid for them by the provincial government, if they are unable to pay, Harold Winch, C.C.F. Leader of the Opposition, said today in the House.

If the farmers are unable to pay their taxes the municipalities will be in worse position than they are already, Mr. Winch said. "It might cost you millions but this is a national disaster," he said.

Premier Byron I. Johnson said the government was not making a statement on the matter but added that municipalities would be treated in a fair and impartial manner.

"The people are worried—they care about their taxes," Mr. Winch interjected. "It is a matter of policy and the government should make a statement."

Disagree On Notes

WASHINGTON (AP)—A disagreement has developed among the western powers over plans for publication of their notes of protest to Russia on the situation in Berlin. Officials in Washington, London and Paris were reported today to be trying to iron out the differences.

The time for release of the notes, which insisted that the Russians lift the Berlin blockade, remains to be fixed but seems likely to fall within the next few days.

U.S. Launches Record Peacetime Arms Program Costing Billion

NEW YORK (CP) — The United States has started its biggest peacetime armaments program.

Between 200,000 and 250,000 men will be drafted for military service during the next year—the first peacetime conscription in the country's history.

Fear of Russia spurred Congress to pass the administration's defence legislation and provide more than $10,000,000,000 for the navy, army and air force in 1948-49.

"BITTER ACTUALITIES"

Kenneth C. Royall, Secretary of the Army, has forecast a mobile striking force of 18 infantry and armored divisions by next year. He acknowledged the armament drive, forced as it was by "bitter actualities, might itself create a risk of war."

"We had no alternative other than to take a dangerous chance as to the survival of our nation, its form of government and its way of life," he said in a speech at the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Va.

Congress' money bills provide for these increases in service strength:

	Today	July 1 (approx.)	1949
Navy	390,000	434,675
Army	550,000	790,000
Air Force	380,000	444,500
Marines	90,000	89,225
Totals	1,410,000	1,758,400

But the Draft Act authorizes a total strength at next July 1 of 2,160,200, without providing the necessary funds. Supplementary appropriations may be asked for later.

In addition, the reserve (part-time) forces will be expanded. For instance, the National Guard, U.S. equivalent of Canada's civilian reserve army, will be boosted from 250,000 to 341,000.

Sept. 22 is the possible starting date for compulsory call-up under the Draft Act. Selective service, idle since April 1, 1947, when the wartime draft ran out, probably will start registering draftees about Aug. 15.

All men 19 to 25 years of age are subject to call into the regular forces, unless they are veterans with one year's peacetime or 90 days' wartime service. President Truman may set up deferments for married men, men in essential jobs, or men in scientific or medical research and study.

Special Flood Session Begins

Alberni Legion Claims Patronage In Civil Service

PORT ALBERNI — Political patronage allegedly involved in selection of veterans for civil service jobs is receiving strong protest by Somass Branch 169 of the Canadian Legion at Alberni.

A resolution by Rev. Glen Stevenson, padre, passed unanimously at the monthly meeting Tuesday will be sent to the Legion's Provincial and Dominion commands.

It sets out that although veterans get first chance at civil service positions in some cases after they have passed examinations they are still subject to approval by the "local political patronage group."

The resolution resolves that "this Legion protest against this method of appointment as unfair and inconsistent with the principle of true democratic freedom, and further insists that loyal and honorable war service together with proven ability to fill any vacancy be sufficient to satisfy those in authority."

Scientists Trace Vitamins To Find Effect On Humans

AMES, Iowa (AP)—Scientists are beginning to lift the curtain of secrecy on exactly what happens to the vitamins you eat and what they do.

The new knowledge is important to health and may aid in understanding such diseases as rheumatic fever and high blood pressure. It shows that some diseases and even changes in food habits can increase your need for certain vitamins.

The facts are hard to get because human chemistry is so involved. But clues and discoveries from many laboratories are helping to map the vitamin trails through this jungle of human chemistry.

ADDISON'S DISEASE

One important clue, said Dr. Robert R. Sealock, Iowa State College biochemist, came from Europe in studies of Addison's disease. This is a chronic weakening disease, usually fatal, and in it the skin turns a coppery bronze color. The European investigators found that doses of vitamin C cleared up this discoloration. It didn't improve the other symptoms of the disease.

The copper color was due to melanin, a skin pigment which when present in smaller quantities is the sun tan pigment. The disease victims had too much melanin.

Dr. Sealock, then at the University of Rochester, and co-workers found the reason why. The melanin was formed because one important chemical wasn't being used properly. This chemical was an amino acid, tyrosine. It's one of the more than 20 amino acids from which all proteins are made.

Lack of vitamin C, they showed, broke the chain of steps in the body's proper use of the tyrosine. One of the broken links formed a substance that produced the melanin.

SCURVY SYMPTOMS

A practical use for this finding was discovered by Dr. S. Z. Levine of Cornell University medical center. Premature babies, fed on cow's milk, developed symptoms of scurvy. The cow's milk has more of the tyrosine than mother's milk. The larger amounts of the tyrosine meant more vitamin C was needed than the babies received in their diet. Dr. Levine gave the premature babies more vitamin C, and they could take the cow's milk without the threat of scurvy.

Other discoveries followed quickly. At New York University, Miss Ella Fishburg found that in certain fairly rare diseases, something is in the blood which decreases the normal oxygen-carrying capacity of the blood. This something proved to be one of the broken links again from insufficiently-used tyrosine. When victims of the disease received more vitamin C, the condition was remedied.

SPENCERS WIN CRICKET

Spencers defeated Oak Bay Colts, 70 to 50, in a cricket game at Windsor Park yesterday. The opening Spencer batsman, Jimmy Oakman, sparked the department store eleven with 46 runs. Paterson of the Colts scored 15. R. Rowe took five Spencer wickets for 27 runs.

Scottish Sisters Sell Orchil House Known To Many Canadian Veterans

STIRLING, Scotland (CP) — In this lowland city live two sisters whose hearts are divided between the Scottish highlands and Canada.

Their is the story of wartime friendships that did not end when the last Canadian sailed home. For Amy and Ibel Robertson, peace was the beginning of adventure across the Atlantic.

During the war they had a shop and boarding house called Orchil House in the Perthshire highland hamlet known as Pool of Muckhart. Soon even the highlanders knew Orchil House as "Canadian Haven."

The sisters had cousins in Abbotsford, Que., 40 miles from Montreal, and when the war began they passed along the word that any Canadians in the services would be welcome. Almost every lad from the Abbotsford district found his way north; one soldier spent 14 leaves at Orchil House.

The veterans, out of uniform, determined the sisters should have a holiday and they flew from Prestwick, Ayrshire, to Montreal, where, as they said afterwards, the "whole gang" awaited them.

They went to Abbotsford to see their relatives and then they had seven months' sightseeing, parties, motor tours, visiting and entertaining.

THEY PAID ONCE

"Only once did my sister and I travel by ourselves and have the satisfaction of paying our own fares," said Ibel.

"For the rest, although we covered 10,000 miles, we weren't allowed to pay a penny."

And they remember — "we were deeply touched that night"—a surprise party in their honor when what they thought was to be a concert turned into a reception for them as guests of honor on a platform where the words "Canadian Haven" were emblazoned with maple leaves.

Now they have sold Orchil House and live in Stirling—with their memories.

Mr. Marinutti sold the Green Lantern Hotel at Chemainus to Louis Pinek of Vancouver and Victor Helch, Nanaimo. The building has 30 rooms and a beer parlor.

Johnson Pleads For Co-operation In Huge Flood Undertaking

Premier Byron Johnson at noon today in the B.C. Legislature pleaded for co-operation and assistance from all in the rehabilitation of Fraser Valley flood victims, and he criticized in the strongest terms those who are stirring up problems and finding faults.

His statement came in the midst of Opposition Leader Harold E. Winch's first attack on the government's dike-repairing program.

Mr. Winch wanted to know what the government was going to do for berry growers and orchardists who have lost plantations and orchards in the Fraser Valley flood. He also wanted to know what the government would do to rehabilitate commercial and industrial undertakings in the flooded areas, suggesting that they are entitled to the same relief as that to be recorded farmers.

The opposition leader added that there were hard feelings in the Fraser Valley about the handling of the $2,000,000 B.C. Flood Relief Fund.

SHARP COMEBACK

Mr. Johnson spoke back sharply.

He said that the government had made a contribution to the B.C. Flood Relief Fund but had no part in its distribution. This was being undertaken by the Canadian Red Cross Society which would review individual cases and name local prominent citizens to help in distributing the money were it was most needed.

Mr. Johnson said he had not heard in the Fraser Valley the criticism which Mr. Winch had heard.

As for the berry growers, Mr. Johnson warned there is a limit to what the government can do.

"The government will do everything it can within reason," he said.

But he warned that there is a surplus of raspberry plantations in the province and it is doubtful that all the raspberries to be produced this year can be sold.

STEER CLEAR OF INDUSTRY

"I don't think this government is in a position to deal with industry," said the Premier. "We have tried to steer clear of compensating industry."

The Premier expressed surprise that Mr. Winch had said flood victims did not know what the government was going to do for them.

Details of the government's plans had been described in the press and given to the flood victims at meetings.

"I appeal to every member of this House, to all of you: Let's approach this thing on a basis of trying to fix it up instead of trying to find faults. Let's not try to create problems," the Premier said.

Cabinet At Odds On Lifting House Rental Controls

OTTAWA (CP)—A difference of opinion between Cabinet members is holding up final decision on whether controls on domestic rentals will be lifted next March, it was learned here Wednesday night.

A source said some members of the cabinet favor the removal of the controls which were brought into effect late in 1940. Others have suggested that Finance Minister Abbott retain the controls for another year at least.

New homes built since January, 1947, are not affected by the controls and the source said if building perks up before the year is out, it may have a great deal to do with the lifting of the controls.

Legislature Gets Down To Work With 3 Sittings Daily

The Provincial Legislature today got down to hard work with three sittings planned each day during the remainder of the flood session which expected to conclude Friday.

Provision was made on the first day for the House to sit three times daily. The motion, proposed by Premier Byron Johnson, provides for sittings from 10:30 in the morning until 1 in the afternoon; from 2:30 to 6 and from 8:30 until adjournment.

The debate on the Speech from the Throne, which at regular sessions occupies the House for 10 days or more, was completely dispensed with Wednesday afternoon. The formal motion, thanking His Honor for the address, was put through immediately following the reading of the speech by Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan.

The opening of the special session was totally lacking in the color which accompanies such ceremonies in peacetime.

There were few guests on the floor of the House, no ceremonial robes of members of the judiciary, clergy, universities. The galleries, however, for the start of the opening were about three-fourths full, a majority of the spectators being women.

To Replace Sproat Lake Mill By $30,000 All-Electric Plant

ALBERNI—Plans for a new all-electric mill, costing upwards of $30,000, are now well advanced by Ellery and Stan Littleton, Alberni, whose mill burned recently near Sproat Lake with almost total loss. Operation is expected in about two months.

The new mill, first of the smaller woods mills here to use electric power, will be on the Somass River adjacent to Christie Farm. Some of the machinery has arrived and men are at work assembling at the location.

1,500 U.S. Lawyers Here In September

Victorians will play host to 1,500 members of the American Bar Association on Sept. 10.

This was announced by Frank E. Holman, Seattle, president-elect of the American Bar Association, who is attending the annual meeting of the B.C. section, Canadian Bar Association, here.

The American Bar was holding its annual meeting in Seattle this fall, he said. On the agenda of the entertainment program was a visit to Victoria.

"Delegates were asked to decide between a visit to Mt. Rainier or Victoria," he said. "Three to one voted in favor of Victoria."

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two young Vancouver men, committed to a mysterious suicide pact, took their lives Wednesday in a gas-filled hotel room. The bodies were not identified.

Police said the case was bizarre. The men, ages 26 and 27, took their lives by swinging the head of the hotel room bed against a gas plate.

A bed sheet was pulled over their heads, the head of the bed and then over the gas plate.

WHERE HONOR IS DUE

IT MUST HAVE BEEN VERY EVIDENT to every listener in the Legislative chamber yesterday, and to all who have read Hon. Byron Johnson's report on the recent flood, that the elected leader of this province played a noteworthy part in organizing and carrying out assistance to the many citizens who were overcome by the tragedy. Although his message to the special meeting of the House made but little mention of his own devotion to the work, the simple outline of his activities throughout those days of emergency provides the framework of a story of unceasing labor, of personal "shirt-sleeve" effort at the scene of the inundation, and of masterly organizing and delegation of authority to achieve the speediest relief.

From the first news of the flood and Mr. Johnson's preliminary trip up the Fraser to the affected areas, the work moved smoothly forward. Here, in sequence, are the events which provide a fast-moving example of able administration and capable acceptance of responsibility when these were needed most:

Almost immediately came the appointment of "personal representatives" by the Premier to give on-the-spot administration. A second visit to the ravaged districts was followed by organization of the B.C. Flood Relief Committee, the declaration of a state of emergency and the setting up of army control. A third trip to the flooded lands preceded appointment of a federal-provincial commission to handle relief and rehabilitation, and then came Mr. Johnson's flying trip to Ottawa to arrange federal financial help. A special session of the provincial Legislature was called, financial arrangements were finalized, and the B.C. Flood Relief Fund Commission was organized. The Provincial Fraser Valley Rehabilitation Commission also was set up, and finally the meeting of the Legislature took place to ratify all that had been done.

The Premier's report paid high tribute to the work of volunteer groups at the scene of the flood, to those who helped in organizing relief, to the three armed services, and to other agencies and individuals who were instrumental in aiding the cause. We feel that the moment should not pass without a similar tribute to the man who, by virtue of his position as head of the province, was placed in a position calling for the highest qualities of organization, initiative, ability and courage. These qualities Mr. Johnson showed in full measure.

ONLY ONE BOSS

THE KREMLIN'S CRACK-DOWN ON Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia for pursuing a nationalistic policy to the detriment of the Communist Cominform's authority should convince even the most glib of parlor pinks that Communism can brook no interference from those who try to mingle patriotism with Marxist internationalism. From many a Communist platform in Canada earnest speakers have attempted to persuade prospective supporters that being a Communist does not mean one has to stop being a Canadian. "You can be both," they chant. "Communism will bring true independence."

The Czechoslovakian demonstrators who gave three cheers for their beloved ex-President Benes did not find it so, as the police rushed in to arrest ringleaders. Tito, who does not merit any sympathy from us in any case, found that his ideas of Yugoslavism clashed head-on with Moscow's urge to dominate. Those who still support any dreams of mixed loyalties should take heed of these examples. Communism must be Russian—or else!

TROUBLE IN MALAYA

TO WHAT DEGREE TROUBLE IN Malaya represents the advancement of the Moscow line to Southeast Asia may become clearer within the next few days. At all events, Rt. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald, British Commissioner-General for that region, has stated categorically that Communists there were planning a violent revolution to capture by force the government of Malaya. The distinguished young Briton, so well known to Canadians, is not given to outlandish statements.

What is important for the rest of the world is to know whether the program planned for Singapore and the northern finger of land which points to it marks an expansion of the fight against democracy, western style, or whether it is the outgrowth of a situation which, in itself, clamors for a change. At this distance from the scene, the possibility that conditions are ripe for a Communist harvest appear by no means remote. Malayan resistance to the Japanese when the sons of the Mikado were striking down from the north, was not conspicuous. At that time belief was general that the native peoples on the peninsula cared little, one way or another, who would be their masters. If that assessment was correct, and if pan-Asian fires have been fed since then, the chances are that a very small percentage of Communists could effect a powerful influence against the government.

The annual review of the Colonial Empire, published at the close of last month by British authorities, has noted specifically the stimulation of the political aspirations of Colonial peoples. Within almost every territory during the year there has been agitation for swifter political advance. The problem, the report states, "is how to harness the new aspirations and direct the feeling of nationalism into constructive purposes. It is a dynamic quality, and if it can be harnessed to the task of building up the community life and particularly the social and economic standards of the people, an important contribution in development is obtained. But if it becomes linked to the aspirations of a narrow oligarchy of power-seekers, and if it attempts to foment radical ill-feeling, then no less it can do incalculable harm."

This is the combustible material with which Mr. MacDonald says the Communists are playing in Malaya. It is to be hoped that the sweeping reforms planned under the Malayan Federation will furnish a bulwark against those special interests which seek by terror and other subterranean means to advance their own ends and, in doing so, use the stirring political consciousness of the native peoples merely as their instrument.

GREEN LIGHT FOR THE PLAN

RATIFICATION OF THE "MARSHALL Plan" agreement by the British Parliament and the French National Assembly has given formal approval to an important part of the United States program for European rehabilitation through large loans and grants. During the first year Britain will receive about $1,200,000,000. France will receive $375,000,000 in the first three months, $300,000,000 of it as a direct gift. Most of the funds will be in the form of food and machinery and productive equipment; for the main purpose of the plan is not merely to provide current relief, but to enable the participating countries to regain their former economic balance.

In view of this aspect of the program, the criticism of its opponents seems to fall a little flat. Communist opposition, expressed in the warnings that "Britain is now in a dependent position," and "This means the colonization of France," is obviously overlooking the chief function of the project. The United States does not want dependent paupers as her European neighbors. She needs cash customers who can stand on their own feet and buy the surplus goods that the great country to our south can produce. And the "Marshall Plan" is a device to try to help the 16 nations that have supported it to achieve this condition.

The Communists, of course, are looking farther than the mere operation of the Plan. They see its success as a definite threat to the furtherance of Marxist ideology and Russian domination; for those countries that are helped back to economic stability will furnish poor audiences for Bolshevik incitement. There are naturally certain conditions attached to the use of such huge sums as Washington will make available to the ERP nations. It would be unreasonable to expect the United States to undertake such enormous commitments without specifying safeguards and considerations. But the Communist fears of "loss of sovereignty" by the participating countries may be measured in terms of their realization that such lands will be saved for western democracy, thereby escaping a complete and permanent loss of sovereignty under Moscow's terroristic rule.

TWO IN THE RING SO FAR

LONG BEFORE THE RECENT SESSION of Canada's Parliament came to an end it was common knowledge in Ottawa and elsewhere in political circles that Rt. Hon. James Garfield Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture in the King government, would be a contender for the leadership of the federal Liberal Party at the convention next month. Any doubt on the point was dissipated by his own statement which we published in our news columns yesterday.

None has ever seriously questioned Mr. Gardiner's ability as an administrator. With more than two decades of practical experience in the province of Saskatchewan—twice as Premier and in his earlier days progressively in charge of the portfolios of Highways, Finance and Education—he acquired all the technique essential for a successful entry into the wider arena of Dominion affairs. For 18 years as federal Minister of Agriculture he has fully justified Mr. King's original choice of the presiding officer of that vitally-important department. And this doughty warrior of the Liberal Party, at 64, may be depended upon to give his competitors a good run for their money when the convention delegates get down to the business of choosing a successor to a Prime Minister whose record of official life and public service has been the subject of much flattering comment throughout the British Commonwealth and Empire, as well as in foreign lands.

As far as can be judged at this stage, one of Mr. Gardiner's principal opponents in the leadership stakes, of course, will be Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, the extremely able former Minister of Justice and at present Minister of State for External Affairs; who is 66. But it can be taken for granted that several other equally capable aspirants, most of them considerably younger, will be tossing their hats into the ring before the chairman's gavel gives the signal for the dispatch of business next Aug. 5. There will be no lack of material from which to make an excellent selection.

Whether man battles in the name of politics, religion or an ism, he expects to get something out of it for himself.

Walter Lippmann

TITO AND THE WARSAW DECLARATION

THE SURPRISING THING about the Yugoslav rebellion is not that it happened but that it happened so soon—while the Red Army is still as far west as the Elbe River. For there is no longer much doubt, I think, that the leading nations of eastern Europe, however Communist, are not the willing satellites of the Russian empire and are certain to follow an independent line in so far as they are not occupied or enveloped by the Russian Army.

The reason why Yugoslavia, rather than Poland, Czechoslovakia, or Hungary, was the first of the satellites to defy the Kremlin is, I should suppose, that the military position of Yugoslavia is more favorable to independence than is theirs. It is not occupied, has no common frontier with the Soviet Union, and is not within easy reach of the Red Army. Tito has a substantial army of his own.

THE EVENTS WILL SHOW whether his rebellion was premature, whether, being an impetuous and ambitious man, he has underestimated the power which the Soviet Union can exert in his neighborhood by virtue of its military control of the industries, the railways, the rivers, and the strategic strong points of eastern Europe.

But if Tito's rebellion fails, it will be because he attempted it before the Russian Army's withdrawal from the centre of Europe.

If the evidence is not yet conclusive, it is certainly increasingly impressive, that the key to the Russian problem in Europe is not, as so many believe, the ideology of Communism and the fifth column of the Communist parties. The key to the Russian problem in Europe is the presence of the Red Army in the centre of Europe.

THUS, IN REACTING to the Cominform's denunciation, Tito called for a "general strengthening" of the Yugoslav Army which "protects the freedom and independence of the people of Yugoslavia." In the context this can mean only that the army protects Yugoslavia against the Russian Army.

Thus, also, there is the angry admission of a Romanian newspaper which speaks for the Cominform that "the people's democratic regimes"—namely Communist regimes—"could not even exist" in Europe "without Russian help." The only countries which Russia was unable to "help" become Communist were those which were liberated from the Nazis by the Red Army and then governed by men installed in office by the Red Army.

THERE IS, TOO, the highly significant admission by the Cominform itself that Tito's rebellion can now be dealt with only by "the sound elements of the Communist Party of Yugoslavia." This means that M. Vishinsky cannot go to Belgrade, as he once went to Bucharest, in order to install a more satisfactory government. The Red Army is not in Belgrade.

The Cominform's bill of complaint discloses the reason why, without the presence of the Red Army, the Kremlin is unable to rule Europe through the Communist parties. Nowhere are the Communists more than a compact minority. To stay in power they must either make terms with the Socialists and other non-Communists, as they have in Yugoslavia and Poland, or they must have overwhelming force behind them in order to exercise a purely Communist dictatorship.

But the national armies, recruited largely from the peasants, cannot be relied upon to support a purely Communist and urban dictatorship. For that an alien army, that is to say the Russian Army, is indispensable.

IN VIEW OF ALL THIS, what are we to make of the recent declaration at Warsaw by the eastern Foreign Ministers, including M. Molotov, that they favor "the swift conclusion of the German peace treaty" and "the swift withdrawal of the occupying forces from Germany?" It is conceivable, though most unlikely, that a realist like Stalin could suppose that a swift withdrawal of the occupying forces from Germany, and therefore from all of Europe, would not drastically reduce the Soviet power in Europe.

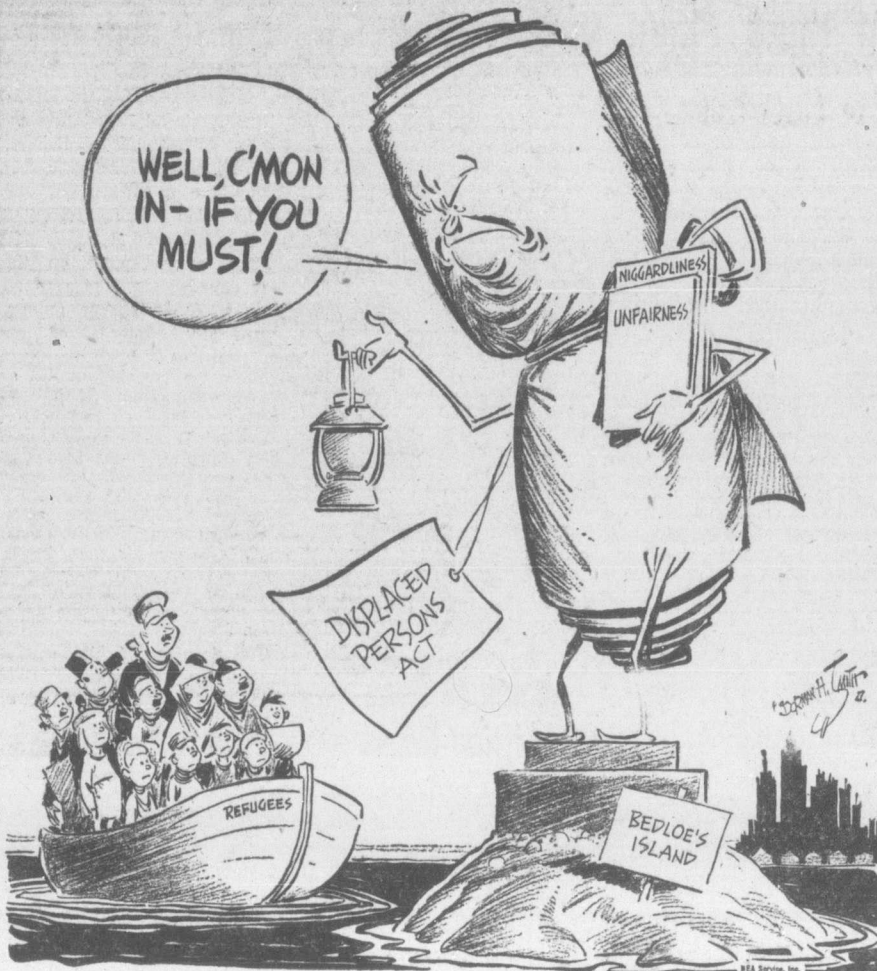

Why, then, does he offer to do the one thing which is most certain to make the Titos even more independent of Moscow, to release all the nationalist, all the European, all the anti-Russian sentiment, which is prevalent everywhere, especially in eastern Europe, even among Communists?

IT COULD BE that he has made the offer believing that it would not be taken up seriously, or that if taken up, it can be weighted with conditions that the Western nations would not accept. But I find it hard to believe that Stalin would make such a point of offering to do something he meant not to do.

The only explanation which seems to fit the facts will, no doubt, seem dangerously optimistic and too good to be true. It is that Stalin has really taken the basic decision to withdraw from Europe where he has lost the cold war and to turn to Asia where the prospects are much more favorable. If he has, in fact, taken this decision, he would not, of course, need to surrender Europe unconditionally. He would, therefore, make every effort to retain as much influence as possible in Europe, and to weaken American and British influence.

The Warsaw declaration enables Moscow to stand for the liberation of Europe from the occupying armies; it puts the West in the position of wanting to continue the occupation.

Temporary Substitute For The Emblem Of Liberty

Changing Political Techniques

By S. BURTON HEATH, from New York

THE LIFE of a politician must have its bright spots, or politics would not be so attractive to men and women who have easier ways of earning livings and finding entertainment. It also has its tribulations, to which science is contributing.

Once upon a time politics was simple. The candidate and the parties' orators could each prepare a single speech, as a barnstorming club lecturer does, and travel all over the country repeating it from memory.

Fast, complete newspaper coverage made that unwise, though friendly reporters could help by selecting one section a day to write up. The radio, however, made it impossible. With everybody listening in—the candidate hopes—he cannot go around repeating himself word-for-word.

Radio also demanded a change in elocutionary approach. No more bellowing, arm waving striding around the platform hypnotizing the audience with gymnastics. The orator must modulate both voice and gestures to keep near the mike and not blow it out. Often, too, he must decide whether to play for those in the hall or those on the air.

TELEVISION TRIAL

These thoughts are suggested by the GOP convention just passed, the Democratic convention coming up, the bitter campaign in which Thomas Dewey will try to break Harry Truman's lease on the White House. They are suggested also by the debut at Philadelphia of big-time television.

The Republican politicians were the goats. They were victims of television's understandable and excusable uncertainty how to go about covering its first convention. They were victims also of their own ignorance that the candidate must don grease paint if he wants to look good to the boys and girls on high stools in the nation's taverns.

Conventions always have been carnivals. As television comes in the lid will go clear off. Elephants—rubber and live—are old stuff.

Bunting, buttons, ties with candidates' pictures. Indians in full tribal dress are trite. That's the sort of thing that can't stand still.

Dewey's fashion parade, Stassen's Hawaiian ukulele singers were good enough for a start. The model who stole the Dewey show by coyly raising her skirt to display garters with pink elephants must have swayed less votes—though Stassen did lose—than did Virginia Davis, daughter of the band leader, when she raised her skirt to show the picture of her Minnesota hero high on her thigh.

If this keeps up, television ought to be fun. It can bring other pleasures, too. Former Gov. Alf Landon suggested one. Political speeches, he said, used to run for two or three hours. The demands of radio cut them down by about two-thirds. He thinks, and hopes, that television boredom will chisel off another third of their length.

When that time comes let us know. We'll start listening to some of them then.

Remedies Begin At Home

By JOSEPH LISTER RUTLEDGE

THE growth of juvenile delinquency has put another handy weapon into the hands of the unthinking. It is so easy and plausible to assume that the upsurge of juvenile crime is the direct result of the adverse economic conditions under which the young potential criminal has lived. Such a solution enables the earnest and quite sincere do-gooder to find an answer that does not unpleasantly include himself. He has not made large profits. Hence he has no hand in this wickedness. It is an argument just tailored to suit the parlor pink.

"If you could just see the conditions under which these young folk live," he urges withunction. Yes indeed if you could, you might very well think differently. Of course economic circumstances do play some part in the development of juvenile delinquency, but not so much as the economic demand to secure something for which there has been no return in work.

The evidence proves beyond any question, that juvenile crime is not a product of neighbor-hoods. If economic lacks induce it, so does economic over-abundance and over-indulgence. But also an equal portion of crime's great toll springs from the middle class; even from the level to which our Socialist friends would reduce—or elevate—us all. Granted such a leveling process, you would still not effect any material change.

ABRAHAMSON FINDINGS

The most recent serious study is that made over the past four years by Dr. David Abrahamson of Columbia's department of psychology. In studying hundreds of young criminals he has found them not only sick but frightened. They were sick both physically and mentally, because they were frightened. And the frightening factor was not economic but social. In the examination of the family histories of these young delinquents there was evidence of emotional tension that resulted in anxiety or cruelty or lack of affection. Dr. Abrahamson's findings are definite. "Family tension, even of a subtle nature, breeds criminals," he says. "Where there is bickering and nagging at home children tighten up with resentment and hostility, rebel against authority, and respond to the will of the gang. Always the hostility is turned against someone."

Of course it is easier and more pleasant to hold up hands in horror. But here is the definite testimony that the worst enemies of the young may be those of his own household.

The Significance Of Cows

From The Times of London

OUR FOREFATHERS, even the rudest of them, paid an almost deferential attention to any abnormal behavior on the part of animals. Citizens, for instance, who on their way to business noticed a lioness whelping in the street or an owl hooting in broad daylight saw in these unusual phenomena the efforts of some supernatural tipster to forecast a cabinet reshuffle or something of the sort.

Both animals and politicians often behave oddly, and, since their eccentricities were bound occasionally to coincide, this somewhat empirical method of forecasting the future gained a reputation for reliability; for the ancient soothsayer, like the modern racing correspondent, had a natural tendency to dwell on his more successful prognostications.

How these pundits would have interpreted the recent aberrations of two cows it is impossible to say, but no soothsayer worth his salt would have let the incidents in which they were involved pass without comment.

ODD BEHAVIOR

One cow—who, since she was British, can for convenience be called Mabel, climbed 172 steps up a spiral staircase adorning a monument erected near Taunton. The second cow, Fifi, fell through the roof of a farm in France into a bedroom occupied by the farmer's wife and her newly born infant; nobody knows how she got on the roof in the first place. Both stories illustrate with disquieting cogency the same thing—namely, a tendency in cows to climb.

These two cows performed these improbable and analogous exploits within a few days of each other, and it is a reflection on our type of civilization that there are no soothsayers left to tell us what it portends.

WARNED OF WHAT?

The idea that perhaps it means nothing in particular may gain currency in these degenerate days, for the disappearance of the soothsayers left no vested interests to insist on the importance of omens. We have, in all probability, been warned; but there is nobody to tell us of what.

Global Survey

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

The totalitarian Communist regime in Moscow is encountering in an impressive way the age-old truth that you can suppress freedom by force but you can't suppress the desire for freedom.

There is no country in which the love of freedom runs more strongly than Czechoslovakia. There could be no more striking demonstration of this than was given quietly but daringly during the parade of people through Prague in connection with the Sokol congress.

The marchers cheered for former President Benes, but they had no salute for his Communist successor, Klement Gottwald. Many tiny American flags appeared among the paraders, and drew applause.

SYMBOLS OF INDEPENDENCE

The Sokol long has stood as a symbol of independence in eastern Europe. It is a cultural and physical training organization with units in numerous countries. Periodically there are congress meets, such as just held in Prague.

Having attended a Sokol in Prague myself, I venture to say that few could come away from one of these exhibitions without a feeling of having communed with the spirit of liberty. That is the spirit which now is showing itself not only in Czechoslovakia but in Finland, Yugoslavia and other shackled states.

You can't control a man's thoughts, though you may prevent him from expressing them. Finally, as we are seeing demonstrated, freedom of action will reassert itself.

One of Communism's greatest weaknesses is its anti-religious tenet, which in itself is enough to turn away Christians, Jews, Mohammedans and all other believers in a god. Those believers include the vast majority of humanity.

SILLY CRY

Ottawa Journal
One of the silliest cries of C.C.F. Leader Jolliffe in the Ontario election was that—"the Tories . . . are bending every effort to win another election to put the unions out of business if they possibly can."

Some veteran union man who knows the story of Canadian unions should take Mr. Jolliffe aside and put him on to a bit of history. The bit of history is that it was so-called Tories who, under Sir John A. MacDonald, first legalized unions in this country.

NOISE NUISANCE

Washington Post
For decades little groups of crusaders have organized societies and passed resolutions for noise abatement, yet bedlam around us increases. Perhaps we should be realistic and face the fact that most people like noise—especially if they can make it themselves—also that as life gets more and more mechanized, more people will be equipped with noisemakers, and that we might as well take Pope's advice and learn "the wondrous power of Noise."

IMPORTANCE OF TRADITION

Col. Walter Elliott in the BBC London Letter

We have an idea that it's not the tradition of this country to be conquered and it's had a very strong effect in making us feel that it wouldn't happen. Like the famous occasion when the Czar Peter of Russia was nearly shipwrecked going home and they said, "We are in great danger," and he said, "Did you ever hear of a Czar of Russia that was drowned at sea," and they said, "No," and then he said, well, "That's it. You see they aren't drowned at sea, Czars of Russia." And they got home safely.

POOR METHOD

Montreal Gazette

For some years it has been a common custom for police officers to stop motorists on city streets or at highway points to solicit purchase of tickets to dances, bazaars, circuses and other entertainment events, staged for the benefit of police associations or police-supported welfare activities.

Most citizens are glad to support police benefit and welfare organizations, and to buy tickets to worthwhile attractions sponsored in their behalf. But neither motorists nor pedestrians should be subject to high-pressure tactics by uniformed officers on duty, with the implied or feared possibility of petty harassment if they fail to pay up for the privilege of proceeding on their way unmolested.

Conciliation Board Awards 35% Boost For Electricians

A conciliation board inquiring into a dispute between Nelson and the city's electrical workers, represented by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 1003 (A.F.L.), has recommended a 35 per cent across the board wage increase.

Chairman of the board was Lloyd G. McKenzie, Victoria lawyer. Tom Uphill, Labor M.L.A. for Fernie, and Boyd C. Affleck, Nelson, were the other two members.

Details of the conciliation board said that "it was realized that the city has not kept pace with the almost revolutionary upward adjustment of wage rates negotiated in our province in recent years, nor fully recognized the extent of the increased benefits which have occurred on a very wide scale to our workmen, and have come to be accepted as inevitable."

The board said also that it recognized that the sharp upward adjustment it recommended for the 20-odd electrical workers would certainly have the effect of causing dissatisfaction with the remaining 80-odd civic employees and enhance their bargaining position in any claim for similar increases.

"This would necessarily result in a serious upset of the existing tax structure and financing

Actor At Inquest On Carole Landis

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Rex Harrison, British movie actor, was scheduled to appear for questioning today in connection with the suicide of Actress Carole Landis. Coroner Ben Brown announced he had agreed to give information.

Harrison had dinner with Miss Landis last Sunday night, a few hours before she swallowed the sleeping pills which took her life. He also found the body Monday in the bathroom of her Riviera home.

Meantime, the coroner's chemist, R. J. Abernathy, announced that death resulted from an overdose of sleeping pills.

The coroner said, "Our intent in calling Harrison is to leave nothing undone to clear up completely any unexplained points in Miss Landis' death."

Autopsy surgeons said the actress could not have become a mother. They said she had a "peculiar natural condition," not surgical, of which she may not have been aware.

$5,000,000 Loan Planned For B.C. Flood Relief Costs

The B.C. Government has asked the Provincial legislature to approve a $5,000,000 loan to help pay for the costs of the floods.

The borrowing authority is sought in the flood relief bill introduced in the Legislature Wednesday afternoon by Premier Byron Johnson.

In this proposed act and in the Fraser Valley diking board bill, also introduced on the opening day of the special flood session, the government seeks a "blank cheque" to pay for the costs of the flood and the rehabilitation of the flooded areas.

The flood relief bill provides for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to "constitute such boards as he thinks necessary and he may from time to time confer such powers as he thinks necessary to enable it to carry out the provisions of this act."

The two-man board for the Fraser Valley, to be known as the Fraser Valley Rehabilitation Authority, is composed of William L. Mackin and Lt.-Col. D'Arcy J. Baldwin. Other persons may be added to the board by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

OTHER BOARDS PLANNED

The government is also seeking the power in this bill to name boards for other flood areas. The boards will be bodies politic and corporate.

"The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall have power to ratify any act in relation to the flood done by the said William Lyle Mackin and Lt.-Col. D'Arcy James Baldwin, M.B.E., before the enactment of this act and before the constitution of the board known as the Fraser Valley Rehabilitation Authority," the bill reads.

The bill will empower the government to fix the remuneration of the board.

"A board may from time to time appoint such employees as are required by it and fix and pay remuneration," says the bill.

The employees shall hold office during the pleasure of the board and the boards during the pleasure of the government.

Further authority is sought by the government to prescribe the duties of the boards, damage in respect of which aid may be rendered, extent and nature of the work the boards shall take to prevent further floods.

RATIFIES AGREEMENT

The bill also ratifies the agreement which B.C. and the federal government have made to pay for the costs of the Fraser Valley floods. Details of this agreement have been announced previously.

The Fraser Valley diking board bill provides for the setting up of the board to be directed jointly by the federal and provincial governments.

Among the wide powers given the board are the following:

"The board shall have power, without giving notice to any person, to enter upon, take possession of, and use for such time as the board thinks necessary, any lands that in the opinion of the board are required to carry out its purpose, and to place on any of such lands any works that are authorized by the said agreement."

The powers of the board will supersede the powers of any drainage or diking district or of any improvement district or municipality.

Arrangement is made for the expropriation of lands needed by the board.

Pilot Misses Fire, Dad Arrives First

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—When forestry pilot Jack Donnelly flew to Graham Lake to check a report of a bush fire in the area along the Canadian Pacific Railway's right-of-way, he could find no trace of smoke. He concluded it was a false alarm.

It wasn't until later that he learned the fire had been extinguished by the crew and passengers of a C.P.R. train on which his father, J. J. Donnelly, was conductor.

Donnelly had been flying men and equipment to a stubborn bush fire at Windogokan Lake near the Quetico Park border when he received a radio message advising him to go to Graham Lake to check a report of a fire near the C.P.R.'s line.

The former R.C.A.F. pilot landed his firefighters and equipment at Windogokan Lake and turned northward in search of the reported smoke.

He circled the area for half an hour before returning to base, to report disgustedly that it was a false alarm.

He learned that night it was not a false-alarm when Mr. Donnelly senior told him the full story. His train had been running northwest of Port Arthur, through Graham.

There had been a fire at milepost 77. The train crew observed the flaming bushland, stopped the train, rigged hose to the engine pump and, with the aid of passengers who swarmed from the coaches to help, battled the fire with water, old sacks and shovels. They soon had it out.

Thus by the time pilot Donnelly arrived over the scene, there was nothing to see.

Members To Receive Living, Traveling Costs

A bill to provide traveling expenses and living costs to members of the Legislature during the current special flood session was given formal first reading by the House Wednesday afternoon.

The bill dispenses with the regular seasonal allowance and mileage allowance and in lieu provides for paying the actual traveling expense of each member from his residence to Victoria and back "and his living expenses while present in Victoria by reason of his attendance at the session as fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council."

Burma Makes Business Difficult For Foreigners; Plan To Export

RANGOON (AP)—Little Burma is just plain weary of the foreigner.

When Britain yielded Crown power Jan. 4, Burma walked out of the Commonwealth, declining Dominion status. She chose a path leading sharply to the left. Strong forces are trying to lead her all the way to Communism and close association with Soviet Russia.

The announced objective of the government and constitution drafts is to give the country a democratic, socialistic people's government. These men want Burma to be a rich, peaceful export country, running her own affairs. They have drawn up a policy which boils down to "Bu na for Burmans."

Both foreign and Burman business men speculate privately that the country may suffer a setback from too rapid a change to government ownership. They are especially concerned by the loss of western engineering skill which has kept the war-battered inland fleet and docks of the Irrawaddy Flotilla Company in operation.

The fleet is the principal artery of inland commerce. Burmans are taking over skilled jobs formerly held by westerners, and many observers fear this will harm the country's comeback from the war. Indians own about one-fourth of the country's rich rice fields, and hold mortgages on other large tracts.

Now the squeeze is being placed on all of them. No foreigner may purchase land without special permission from the President of Burma. Such permission is difficult to get.

Nationality Bill Again Debated

LONDON (Reuter)—The government joined battle with the House of Lords over the British nationality bill by asking the Commons Wednesday to strike out amendments carried by the House of Lords against the government last month.

The Lords, after objecting to the creation of a common citizenship of the United Kingdom and the colonies, altered the world "citizen" in this context to "British subject."

Another amendment was carried providing that nothing in the bill should affect the status of British law of a citizen of Eire in respect of his right to be regarded as a British subject.

Opening debate on the second reading, Home Secretary Chuter Ede said the bill was of first constitutional importance.

In 1945 Canada passed a Canadian Citizenship Act which established a citizenship for Canada.

"It is undesirable that there should be people in the world whom British law may regard as British subjects but Canadian law may not regard as British subjects," said Mr. Ede.

Canada, he said, was the first country so to legislate, but other Dominions contemplated parallel legislation.

Retroactive Cheques Go In Mail This Month

In connection with the increase of $10 a month which was recently authorized by Parliament for single men, married men and widows, who are recipients under the War Veterans' Allowance Act, S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator, Department of Veterans' Affairs, states that he has received word that adjusting cheques, retroactive to Oct. 1, 1947, are expected to be mailed during the latter part of July. It is expected that the increase will be automatic in the great majority of cases, but where there is a doubt as to eligibility, there may be a delay in a final decision.

Nanaimo-Duncan Share Interest In Wedding Here

Of much interest up-island, where the groom and his parents are well known, was the marriage Monday of Miss Dorothy Charlotte Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glendower K. Allen, No. 7 Lotus Avenue, and Gordon Stewart Lindsay of Duncan.

Friends of the bride decorated St. Barnabas Church with gladioli for the ceremony at 8.30 conducted by Rev. Redish. A reception followed at Strathcona Hotel where in the absence of the bride's mother, owing to illness, Mrs. E. T. FitzGerald, sister of the bride, received guests with the young couple and parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsay, Kennedy Street, Nanaimo, B.C. Toast to the newly weds was given by Edwin FitzGerald.

Wearing a sand beige street-length frock with belanchago accessories, and carrying a colonial bouquet of Talisman roses and sweet peas, Miss Allen was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Geraldine Allen, was her maid of honor. Her afternoon dress was in midnight blue crepe with smartly contrasting accessories of deeper blue, and her colonial bouquet was of gladioli, roses and sweet peas.

Rodney Lindsay served his brother as best man. Ushers were Patterson and Reginald Allen.

For the wedding trip to Vancouver the bride changed to a three-piece gabardine suit of soft blue, with her belanchago accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay will make their home at Duncan.

Bear Kills Girl

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (CP)—A black bear carried off Carol Ann Pomerankey, three, from the steps of her home 25 miles west of here today, took her into deep woods and pauped her to death. The child's mother saw the bear grab the child and screamed in a vain effort to make the animal drop the little girl. Volunteer searchers found the body.

Indian Woman Lawyer Wears Saris, Enlivens London Courts

LONDON (Reuter) — Britain's only Indian woman lawyer, 27-year-old Kamila Tyabji of Bombay, has introduced brilliant silken saris to the sombre monotones of London's solemn law courts, and been applauded for it.

Dignified lawyers in the council chamber first gaped at her unique appearance in her own traditional robes under a barrister's long curly, grey wig and black gown.

"But we unanimously approve; she lends a splash of color," said one eminent lawyer.

Miss Tyabji, who wears make-up, brilliant red nail varnish on her long pointed nails, costume jewelry and high heels, said: "I will never ever discard the sari. It is the most beautiful dress for a woman. For that reason I cannot understand the Indian women who do."

For career women anywhere she advocates:

"Look after your appearance. Many intellectual women only look after their intellects. Womanly qualities are as important as intellects."

As to politics, she says: "I was very opposed to the partition of India but now there are two separate Dominions I cannot feel that the interests of either one of them can be opposed to the other and I feel both need all the help they can possibly get for their internal development."

Miss Tyabji has written a book entitled "Limited Interests in Mohammedan Law" for which she had read Arabic books written 400 to 500 years ago. When she gets it published she will submit it to Oxford University to decide if she will receive the degree of doctor of civil law or not.

If she does, she will be the first Indian woman to receive it and the youngest woman ever.

It is not surprising that Miss Tyabji took up law. It runs in her family. Her grandfather—Badruddin Tyabji—was the first Moslem lawyer in British India and the first to be appointed a high court judge. Her father was also a high court judge and his book on Mohammedan law is frequently quoted in the Privy Council.

Junior Red Cross Heads See Healthy Growth In Province

"In the past three years, membership in the Junior Red Cross Society has increased by 10,900 each year in British Columbia," Miss Jean E. Browne, national director of Junior Red Cross, said in an interview yesterday.

With Miss Margaret Palmer, of Vancouver, provincial director of Junior Red Cross, Miss Browne is in the city, lecturing at summer school.

"This shows a wholesome growth," the director continued, "and also it means that teachers of this province are well aware of the contribution Junior Red Cross can make to their schools."

Provincial director, Miss Palmer, who was also present at the interview, pointed out that Greater Victoria school membership totals 81 per cent, and next year should be even higher.

She praised the interhigh Junior Red Cross council here, with 100 per cent high school membership, and spoke of the development of organization and participation by both elementary and high schools, in Junior Red Cross, their objectives being improvement of health, service to others, international friendliness and good citizenship.

Keen interest in children and teen-agers has been taken by Miss Browne for many years, and she believes that personal reward in working with young people is far greater than that of working with persons whose ideas and habits are already firmly fixed.

She spoke with enthusiasm of boys and girls assuming responsibilities in Junior Red Cross groups. "It is one thing for the younger generation to work well while directed by others, but it is far better to see them reach their objective by shouldering responsibility of their own council, electing officers, appointing committees and reaching decisions," she explained.

The first appointed national director of the Junior Red Cross, this kindly-faced woman with friendly eyes and ready smile, has held that position for 26 years.

"I have always worked among children, and my first job, following my graduation from Toronto Normal School, was teaching," she said.

Later Miss Browne, who names Toronto her home town, took nurses' training at the general hospital there, and then post-graduate public health work at King's College, affiliated with University of London.

Following her lectures at summer school this week, she returns to the national office in Toronto, to complete arrangements for her trip, as one of five Canadian delegates to the international Red Cross meeting in Stockholm, Sweden.

Leaving August 6, the director, whose chief responsibility will be Junior Red Cross societies, will sail aboard the Queen Elizabeth for England, where she will stay for two weeks prior to the meeting.

Dorothy Dix

EARLY ENGAGEMENTS

Dear Miss Dix: I am a girl 18 years old, holding a good secretarial position. Have been going with a boy for about a year and am very much in love with him, but my mother objects to my going with him to the exclusion of all other men, as it will be a long time before he will be in a position to marry me.

She nags me constantly about this "steady company" business. Now, don't you think I am old enough to know my own mind?

NELL H.
Answer: I agree with you that mothers shouldn't nag their daughters, and that the main reason that girls don't listen to their mothers' advice is that mothers can never say a thing once and let it go at that. They keep on harping on the same string until they get on their children's nerves, and that makes them stubborn and feel as if they would rather die than give in.

But in your case, my dear, I think your mother is right in advising you not to give up all the other boys and devote yourself exclusively to this boy when you are not even engaged to him and it will be years and years before he could marry you. After a while you may tire of him, or he may tire of you. You may outgrow him, or he may outgrow you. Or he may go away to seek his fortune, and where will you be then if you have let him monopolize you?

DISMAL FUTURE

You will be left forlorn and stranded and it will be pretty hard to get back into the old circle with the old boys. I think a girl is just naturally lacking in good, hard horse sense who gives up going with other men until her wedding day is in sight.

Child Behavior Traced And Recorded In Brain Waves

IOWA, CITY, Iowa (AP) — Brain waves are giving clues as to why some children and adults often are in social and legal hot water.

The waves are electrical impulses recorded from the brain. Certain abnormal waves are found with greater frequency in children and adults with certain personality disorders, studies here show.

These people were not insane or deficient in intelligence, nor did they have known diseases of the brain or nervous system. They were the so-called psychopathic personalities and behavior problem children, which include many delinquents, ne'er-do-wells, and "black sheep."

The brain wave study is one phase of the problem of psychopathic personality and behavior disorders in children being studied at the psychopathic hospital and State University of the Iowa College of Medicine.

Study of the brain waves of parents of the children in trouble indicates that the patterns often are inherited. If one or both parents had an abnormal pattern, the chances were that their offspring would have a similar one.

TRACED TO CHILDHOOD

Sometimes the unusual brain waves could be traced to illnesses or injuries of early childhood, although the child appeared to have recovered. The younger the child at the time, and the more severe the illness or injury, the more likely he was to show the abnormal brain waves and personality problems.

In another phase of the study, characteristic traits of parents and children are being compared through personality tests. Many parents were found to be emotionally immature, having traits similar to those of the patients.

It may be possible to connect the different kinds of unusual and unwanted behavior with certain unusual brain wave patterns and with different personality traits.

The early lives of these patients, it was found, almost always were implicated by disturbing environments, such as broken homes, unstable parents, deaths, desertion and alcoholism. These are being studied in relation to personality and behavior.

Such information may help determine what part inheritance and environment play in the development of personality traits that lead to poor adjustment in life.

Briton Takes Tents,

Family To Australia

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Dr. J. W. Thornton of Portsmouth,

England, came to Australia "to give his children a chance."

I knew I couldn't keep my children fit and well in England, so I've brought them here," he said on arrival in Sydney.

"The children themselves first suggested it. They deserve a break for they were right in the front line at Portsmouth during the war—1,800 air raids.

"You only have to look at them to see what is happening. The older youngsters are big and strong; the younger are thin and pale."

Dr. Thornton brought a number of tents with him. "Your housing shortage is well known, so I've come prepared," he said. "We shall tour the country and have a good look around before we settle down."

The sewing machine was invented in ancient Rome, reinvented in England in 1795, and in France, 25 years later.

Old U.S. Battleship Easily Sent Down

ABOARD THE U.S. CARRIER BOXER (AP)—The U.S. battleship New York, tough old veteran of two wars and survivor of Bikini's atom bomb test, was sunk unexpectedly Wednesday by a 500-pound bomb—and "time and rust."

This disappointing anti-climactic end of the 34-year-old warship came on the first day of the scheduled two-day fleet exercises 44 miles southwest of Pearl Harbor.

The 30,000-ton battlewagon rolled over on her port side after a flurry of five-inch shells and 500-pound bomb hits, wallowed like a tremendous whale with her flat bottom awash and settled. She sank 38 minutes after she capsized.

It had been expected she would withstand all that Task Force 38 could throw at her for two days, then require finishing by torpedoes.

Britain-Russia Trade In Harmony

LONDON (CP)—Britain and Russia may disagree over some political questions, but in trade exchanges they live in harmony.

Russian ships bring coarse grains to Britain which has delivered or is making for shipment, electrical, motor railway and other equipment to fill large Russian orders.

Russian ships started grain deliveries early this year. Arrivals up to May 31 totaled 242,000 tons worth £7,500,000 ($30,000,000).

The contract, announced last Dec. 27, provides that the Russians ship 750,000 tons of grain. Under an escape clause, if Russia, for any reason, is unable to place more than half her projected orders for British equipment by May 31, the last 200,000 tons may be withheld.

It is understood that orders for the necessary amount of equipment had not been placed by May 31 but the Russians have continued to ship grain and order equipment.

The Gyro Club got well under way in a campaign to raise $12,000 for the Queen Alexandra Solarium with a large and enthusiastic crowd attending the opening Wednesday evening of its ninth annual hole-in-one contest and carnival at Central Junior High School.

The affair was opened by Ald. Frank Mulliner and Logan Mayhew, president of the Solarium board of directors.

Ald. Mulliner praised the club for its valuable contribution of both time and money "to such a worthwhile cause," and asked for the support of all Victorians to put this year's carnival well over the $12,000 objective.

Mr. Mayhew said money turned over to the Solarium by the Gyro Club will be used in constructing nurses' cottages at Mill Bay.

NEW HOSPITAL

"These units are being built in such a way that they fit in with our plans for a new hospital, which we hope some day to build," he said.

Last year's carnival netted the Solarium $8,000, Mr. Mayhew said. He hoped this year's affair would exceed this amount.

Bill Bond, Gyro president, addressed the opening night gathering briefly, and thanked those in attendance for their patronage.

Following the opening ceremony, Gyro members dropped their usual business manners, and opened up with such calls as "Step right up, folks," and "Come on in." Their barking soon had the crowd in a carnival mood.

Popular features were the baseball and bottle game, dart throwing contest, the shooting gallery and midway games.

Bingo tables drew capacity crowds almost every game and a mechanical horse race was well patronized.

Highlight of the whole affair, however, was the featured golf event. Experienced players and duffers alike competed with one another from the 10 tees.

HOLE-IN-ONE

W. H. Young, proprietor of the Cedar Hill Golf Course, and four-time winner of the annual contest, shot the only hole-in-one of the evening and won $15.

Mrs. Mary Fraser, 1134 View Street, placed one of her shots three inches away from the cup to win second prize of $10, and Herbert Cook, 1023 Pandora Avenue, won the third place $5 prize with a ball 13 inches from the hole.

Many other golfers came near enough to qualify for the Saturday final, the winner of which will be awarded a new Bendix home laundry unit.

Winner of the first night tombola prize was H. M. Smith, 2710 Tudor Avenue, who will receive $50.

The affair will operate again tonight and tomorrow, starting at 7, and on Saturday from 2 in the afternoon.

Fifty Entered In Annual Pacific Northwest Pistol Tournament

Pistol marksmen at the 25-yard posts in a rapid-fire event, five shots in 10 seconds. In this and the five shots in 20 seconds, Ed Walmsley, Seattle police, scored a possible.

Seattle Policeman Leads In Grand Aggregate Fight

With a bigger entry on hand than last year, Victoria City Police Revolver Club's 1948 edition two-day pistol tournament got off to a good start at the Thetis Lake range Wednesday with some excellent marksmanship being displayed by individuals from top master shots to the novice group.

There are 53 active participants. While the bulk of marksmen are B.C. residents, there are a dozen visitors from as far south as Portland across the line to give the meet its international flavor.

The tournament will wind up tonight in the Empress Hotel, the schedule opening with a banquet at 7, followed by the prize-giving to be presided over by Mayor Percy E. George, who will attend with Mrs. George. The evening will conclude with dancing.

As a result of his fine showing yesterday, H. Ed Walmsley of the Seattle police team, one of the two attending in the master classification, appears to be headed toward retaining the grand aggregate honors he copped last year.

Other master marksman present is Gene O'Dell from Raymond, Wash., who is providing the main opposition against Walmsley. At the end of the day, Walmsley was leading O'Dell by 1,444 to 1,392 in the aggregate count.

HENRY-WEBB LEADERS

Sgt. Jack Henry of the B.C. Police, Burnaby, an expert, Wednesday took the lead in the fight for the B.C. Provincial Police aggregate, won last year by Sub-inspector Jake Young, Victoria. Sgt. Charlie Webb, in expert class, forged to the front in the city aggregate fight. He won it last year.

Walmsley, said Capt. Walter Day, leader of the Seattle police contingent, recently turned down an invitation to join the U.S. Olympic pistol team. He scored first in his class in four of the six events on the opening day's program, was on the winning Seattle police team in the four-man team national match course. He bowed to O'Dell in the third event, due to gun trouble. Walmsley soon had the trouble rectified before the next call to the posts.

Sgt. Henry was tops in his class three times, tyro Les Ledson of Saanich police the same in that class. Mrs. Ethel Young, Victoria, and Mrs. Helen Gibbs, Raymond, Wash., are the two women entered in the meet. Both won laurels yesterday. Mrs. Mickey Pearce, wife of Sgt. Cecil Pearce of Saanich police, is also entered.

For the purpose of identifying classifications of entrants the following initials represent: M—master; E—expert; SS—sharpshooter; MK—marksman and T—tyro.

Following are the winners in the five classifications of Wednesday's matches:

Event 1—20 shots, slow fire at 50 yards: (M) Walmsley, 190; (E) Henry, 181; (SS) G. Westling, Seattle, 183; (MK) Erickson, Seattle, 175; (T) Ledson, 113.

Event 2—20 shots, time fire at 25 yards: (M) Walmsley, 197; (E) Henry, 195; (SS) Insp. "Nobby" Clark, B.C. Police, Vancouver, 186; (MK) Murray Laidlaw, C.I.L., 189; (T) Bill Stark, Victoria B.C. Police, 156.

Event 3—20 shots, rapid fire at 25 yards: (M) O'Dell, 191; (E) C. E. Smith, Raymond, Wash., 193; (SS) Westling, 191; (MK) J. R. Smith, New Westminster, 181; (T) A. Schnee, Seattle, 150.

Event 4 (national match course)—(M) Walmsley, 294; (including one possible in the three 100 shot phases); (E) Henry, 283; Westling, 273; (MK) Ethel Young, 272; (T) Ledson, 215.

Event 5 (four-man national team course)—1, Seattle Police, Day, Walmsley, Henry Koshak and J. E. Steele, 1,125; Capital City Pistol Club of Raymond, O'Dell, Glen Gibbs, Helen Gibbs and Cliff Smith, 1,092.

World War On Narcotics Traffic Carried On By United Nations

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations are carrying on a war against narcotic drug smugglers and clandestine manufacturers.

In Mexico and China it has been a real war, involving use of troops and airplanes. In Canada, the United States, India and several far eastern countries it is the continued cold war of the customs and narcotics agents against the smugglers.

The Chinese government mobilized as many as 20,000 troops; Mexico put in the field some 700 soldiers, 10 planes, scores of federal and narcotic inspectors.

DIRECTED BY COUNCIL
Reports of these activities were sent to a very peaceful United Nations organ, the Economic and Social Council. The council is the direct overseer of the commission. This body, in turn, inherited many of the functions of the League of Nations in the field of narcotics control.

More than 40 countries have accepted agreements made under the League of Nations. Still newer pacts, to control use and production of synthetic drugs—not covered in previous accords—now are being signed.

China reported on results of a six-year campaign to suppress the cultivation of the type of poppy which yields opium.

Farmers in the Chinese provinces of Hupeh, Kansu and Shensi were persuaded to cultivate other crops, such as tung oil, tea and corn. Tung oil has great demand for export.

But what the government calls an "uncivilized" tribe in the mountain country between Shensi and Szechwan would not co-operate. These people, called the Yee-Mings, thought they had a good thing and refused to give it up.

This year the government sent some 20,000 troops into the region and succeeded in destroying the plantations. However, the Yee-Mings simply pick up their tents and move elsewhere to begin again. The soil is perfectly suited to the poppy and their job is easy.

encouraging trade. Raw opium in Indian ports is cheap, about $10 a pound, but the value is about $600 when it shows up in Canadian or United States ports.

Mexican opium yields what is called brown heroin. The stuff, depending on the demand and the place, reaches fancy prices: as much as $5,000 an ounce by the time it reaches Vancouver through Toronto and New York.

Tired Children Susceptible
To Polio, Doctor Reports

Don't let your children play too hard or they may contract poliomyelitis.

This advice was given to parents by Dr. W. P. Walker, medical officer, who submitted a verbal report to Oak Bay's health committee last night on his health conditions in the municipality.

In Dr. Walker's opinion most polio cases were at the time of contact suffering from exhaustion and severe strain. Children, he said, should never be permitted to play to a point of exhaustion because of the danger of contracting the disease.

"I feel certain that when the men aboard H.M.C.S. Athabaskan contacted the disease in Mexico they were in a state of exhaustion or over-tired," he said.

Dr. Walker who dealt with a polio epidemic in Oak Bay some years ago, said he noticed that exhausted children were usually the first victims of polio. He related how one boy who had raced all day at Willows Beach had died a few days later from polio.

"Other children who were playing with the boy and who were over-tired also contracted the disease in a mild form," he said. "I have noticed that most people suffering from severe strain are susceptible to polio."

Dr. Walker said that he was not suggesting that children should not be allowed to play in parks and beaches. "But they should be watched," he stated, "to see that they don't overdo it."

With regard to the disease in Oak Bay, Dr. Walker said no cases of polio had yet been reported.

Tuberculosis Is Common Disease,
Oak Bay Informed

Your chances of not contracting tuberculosis during your lifetime are pretty slim, according to Dr. G. P. Walker, medical officer for Oak Bay.

Dr. Walker told the municipal health board last night that 90 per cent of the people who were examined after death were found to have died from T.B. or to have contracted the disease during their lifetime.

He said the disease was more common than people believed. Most people who died over the age of 30 years had at one time contracted the disease.

However, he explained, most people who contracted the disease never got to know they were suffering from T.B. The disease healed by itself or the victim died as the result of the T.B. in later years.

"It is just as well that some people don't know they have contracted the disease," he said. "Some people worry when they catch T.B. and they go down hill quickly."

The doctor explained that this did not mean that people should not take precautions against tuberculosis. He said parents should make every effort to have their children X-rayed for tuberculosis.

"Mothers also should be examined for the disease," he said. "Tuberculosis will kill a mother quickly."

Urges Amendment
To Vehicle Act

An amendment to the Provincial Motor Vehicle Statute was endorsed by Oak Bay Council which Wednesday discussed traffic regulations to protect school children from accident.

While not in favor of eliminating school zones, the council felt that the present provincial statute which states that the school zone will be in effect from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on a day when school is regularly held, should be altered to say 8.15 a.m. to 9.15 a.m., 11.45 a.m. to 1.15 p.m. and 2.30 to 3.30 p.m.

The amendment will be submitted at the next annual meeting of the B.C. municipalities.

U.S. Farmers Want
Price Rise Halted

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation has asked the Democratic Party to pledge a new governmental attack on the problem of skyrocketing prices.

Opening hearings Wednesday on the 1948 Democratic platform, H. E. Slusher, a member of the board of the powerful farm organization, proposed specifically that Congress set up a national monetary commission to find ways of stabilizing prices.

"A democracy of free enterprise cannot flourish and may not even survive continuing fluctuation of the general price level," said Slusher. He is president of the farm bureau in President Truman's home state of Missouri.

Thus the farm leader brought up an issue with which Democrats hope to win votes in November. Mr. Truman and other Democratic leaders have blamed the Republican Congress for swelling prices since wartime controls were dropped.

No Announcement

EDMONTON (CP)—Premier Manning Wednesday described unofficial speculation as to the date of Alberta's next general election as "childish nonsense" and refused to comment on election date rumors. Contending that if he denied one date, "they will just set another," Mr. Manning refused to comment on recurrent rumors that Aug. 10 is the date.

Oak Bay To Buy
Tractor-Truck

Oak Bay Council at Wednesday's meeting decided to buy an additional loader - tractor and truck to speed up public projects and road construction. The vehicles will cost $6,100.

"I wouldn't be in the engineer's shoes for $1,000 a week," said Councillor G. Murdoch who suggested that the municipality purchase the vehicles.

"He receives hundreds of complaints every day and is unable to attend to them because of the lack of equipment," he explained.

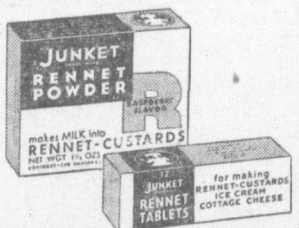

The councillor said many of the projects were lagging behind because of the lack of materials. However, he added that some of the work could be speeded up if additional vehicles were purchased.

The council agreed that the equipment would help to speed up road work.

Flying 'Y' Swim Aces Go Into Trials With Host Of Records

When the Flying "Y" swimmers open bids for spots on the Canadian Olympic team at the Olympic swimming trials at Verdun tomorrow and Saturday the island contingent of three girls and three boys will boast the best combined accumulation of officially recognized records of any group in the trials.

Peter Salmon and Irene Strong head the list with their record-breaking performances of past seasons.

Miss Strong, a recent transfer from the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club, is the holder of no less than 15 individual swim marks and also a member of two record-breaking medley relay teams.

The former winner of the Sir Edward Beatty trophy awarded annually to Canada's leading swimmer, lists in her record book Canadian marks for the junior 40, 50, 100, 200, 220 and 440-yard breaststroke events, the 120, 150 and 300-yard individual medleys, the 40, 50, 100, 200, 220 and 440-yard senior breaststroke and as a member of relay teams, the 120 and 150-yard medleys.

Salmon's records comprise the 40 and 100-yard junior breaststroke, the 40, 50, 100 and 200-yard senior breaststroke, the 100, 200 and 400-yard senior freestyle and the senior 120 and 150-yard individual medleys.

He was also a member of record-breaking relay teams in the 160 and 200-yard junior freestyle and the 160-yard senior freestyle, the junior 120 and 150-yard medleys and the 120, 150 and 300-yard senior medleys.

Another male member of the Victoria Y.M.C.A. squad whose name is prominent in the C.A.S.A. record book is Eric Jubb.

The 17-year-old Jubb, who with Salmon provides the "Y" with a strong one-two punch, holds Canadian standards for the junior 100-yard freestyle, 50-yard breaststroke, and the 300-yard individual medley.

In addition, Jubb's contribution to relay records include the 160 and 200-yard junior freestyle, the 120 and 150-yard junior medleys and the senior 120, 150 and 300-yard medleys.

Joan Morgan who will vie for honors primarily in the backstroke is the Dominion standard bearer for the 200 and 440-yard distances in that event. She owns the existing record in the junior 120-yard individual medley and is co-holder of the senior 120 and 150-yard medley relay marks.

Fifth member of the squad is Ina Salmon, sister of Peter. She holds the Canadian record for the senior 120-yard individual medley and is a member of the 120 and 150-yard medley relay record units.

One of the most consistent members of the team who has always been overshadowed by his more illustrious teammates is Dick Bowden, captain and sixth member of the Olympic trials team. Bowden in the past has held former Dominion records and along with Jubb and Salmon has contributed to new relay standards.

Jensen's Bases-Loaded Home Run Wins

Athletics In Great Comeback To Whip Bremerton 10-7; Players Injured

There's an old superstition in baseball that the seventh inning is lucky for the home team. Such was certainly the case at Athletic Park last night as Victoria Athletics' third sacker Babe Jensen clouted the ball over the centre field fence with the bags bulging and provided the punch in a 10 to 7 victory over second-place Bremerton.

Athletics went on to add another single run in the eighth inning for good measure. It marked the opening of an important five-game Western International League series that might well determine the final pennant chances of either club in the current bitter race. The A's, by their win, gained on league-leading Tacoma Tigers, who were rained out of their scheduled engagement at Vancouver.

Once again the Athletics displayed their ability to come from away back to win. After three innings the Victoria club was on the short end of a 7 to 0 score with that old cutie John Marshall looking plenty sharp on the mound for Bremerton. After getting to Marshall for two runs in the fourth and adding singles in the fifth and sixth, the run in the fifth coming on a home run by Jack Palmer, the A's blasted him off the mound in the seventh and continued their hitting barrage against his successor, John Conant, who was charged with the defeat.

LOGUE WORKS WELL

Sharing the glory with Jensen was side-arm Frank Logue. Taking over from Bill Harmsen in the third and down 6 to 0, Logue held Bremerton to a single run in the third to notch his second consecutive mound triumph. Logue had perfect control as he gave up only five hits in his seven-inning stint and showed his courage by choking off a Bremerton threat in the ninth by striking out pinch-hitter Keith Simon, with two runners aboard, on a three and two pitch.

Came was marred by a bad accident to Bremerton's outfielders Eddie Murphy and Lyle Palmer. Going after Jensen's long fly ball in the eighth inning the pair collided with terrific force, close to the fence, and dropped to the ground cold as a pair of frozen mackerels. Palmer was carried off the field on a stretcher and rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital for observation. Murphy was badly shaken up but managed to walk back to the dressing room.

Catcher Al Ronning's home run with the bags filled was the big blow in Bremerton's five-run upsurge in the first inning. Har-

Majeski's Bat Gives A's Win Over Yankees

Cleveland's Indians retained their slim 10-percentage-point lead over the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics in the tight American League pennant race last night, beating Chicago White Sox 10 to 2 while the A's nosed out the Yankees, 4 to 3 in New York.

Bobby Feller scattered the eight White Sox hits in gaining his ninth victory of the year against nine setbacks. The Sox rocked Feller for two runs in the first inning but the big righthander then settled down and held the tail-enders scoreless.

Hank Majeski was the star in the Athletic triumph over the Yankees. Majeski socked a two-run homer in the first inning and then tripled home what proved to be the winning run in the fifth. The A's managed to collect only four hits off Tommy Byrne and Frank Shea.

Toronto's Dick Fowler scattered nine Yankee hits in posting his seventh triumph against only one loss.

Washington Senators came from behind and scored five runs in the ninth inning to beat the fourth-place Red Sox, 7 to 6, at Boston. Vern Stephens clouted his 16th homer and Bobby Doerr his 14th for the Sox.

12TH VICTORY

At Detroit, Hal Newhouser pitched the Tigers to a 6 to 0 seventh-inning victory over St. Louis Browns. The triumph was Newhouser's 12th of the year.

In the National League, Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Cardinals 2 to 1 in St. Louis to move over the Cards into second place, 1½ games behind the front-running Boston Braves.

Tied at 1 to 1 going into the ninth inning, the Pirates broke the tie when Ralph Kiner doubled and Wally Westlake followed with a run-scoring single.

The Braves were nosed out 4 to 3 in 11 innings by the Dodgers in Brooklyn. Roy Campanella's long fly with one out and the bases loaded enabled Carl Furillo to score from third after the catch with the winning run.

The victory was the Dodgers' sixth straight and it enabled them to take over fifth place from Philadelphia Phillies who were beaten 7 to 0 by the fourth-

Bluebirds Grab Fourth Spot In Softball Race

The battle for fourth and last playoff spot in the Senior A Men's Softball League is on. Last night Bluebird Cabs took over the coveted position by defeating Navy 6 to 2.

Navy must now win at least two of their next three games and at the same time Bluebird drop their remaining game, before the Tars can get into the playoffs.

The boys from Esquimalt started George Kinch, their ace hurler last night, but he just didn't have it. He was in trouble all through the game, being reached for eight hits and issuing eight walks. Al Majorki pitched steady ball for the winners holding the opposition scoreless until the seventh inning.

Bluebirds moved ahead in the third scoring four runs. Embleton singled and moved to second when Majorki received a walk. Tommy Johnson hit a Texas leaguer into centre field scoring Embleton. Both runners advanced when the play was made at home. After two were out Bob Prior doubled down the line. The right fielder let the ball get away from him and Prior came in behind Johnson and Majorki.

The Camben added one more run in the fifth when Ron Howard hit a double to score Bill Rafferty who had walked.

NAVY BREAKS THROUGH

Navy scored twice in their half of the seventh inning, on two hits a walk and two errors to make the score 5 to 2.

To the bottom of the seventh Bluebirds tallied a run without getting a hit. Rafferty walked and went to second on a fielder's choice. A pinch runner was put in for Rafferty and he advanced to third on a passed ball, later scoring the last run of the game on a wild pitch.

Langford defeated Selkirk 12 to 5, in a senior B men's fixture.

Mafosta Will Return To B.C. For Rest

VANCOUVER (CP)—The idol of British Columbia race fans—fleet-footed Mafosta—is coming home for a rest.

The six-year-old Irish stallion is being shipped from Hollywood

Park and will rest up at a farm on

Lulu Island, it was learned today.

Mafosta, originally purchased for $25,000 has won more than $100,000 for Ronald Graham of Vancouver.

Trainer Wally Dunn plans to have the big top notch horse ready for Santa Anita.

Mondaloo Pays Big Price At Longacres

SEATTLE (AP)—Mondaloo, a leather coat owned by W. H. Young of Arco, Idaho, won by a nose in the third race at Longacres Wednesday to pay bettors $147.50 for a

$2 ticket.

It was the biggest pay-off of the current meet so far.

Newsworthy, owned by J. K. Houssels of Las Vegas, Nev., won the feature with a time of 1:13 for the six furlongs. He paid $9.50, $6.40 and $4.20.

Jokers, Bays In Senior Boxla Tilt

Jokers and J.B.A.A. will meet in tonight's senior boxla fixture at Stevenson Memorial Park at 6.30.

Jokers' line-up follows: Andrews, Thomas, McLennan, Temple, Ellis, Douglas, McMillan, Ovcharik, Banks, Harding, Stewart, Joyce, Scotney, Brown.

when the A's failed to score a run after loading the bases with one away. Bremerton's run off Logue in the third resulted without a hit, a double steal by Barisoff and Arnerich doing the damage.

GET TWO BACK

A's broke into the scoring in the fourth, hits by Wilson, Jensen and Morgan along with an infield out being good for two runs.

Palmer's circuit blow added a third tally in the fifth.

Then came the seventh and Marshall's exit. Charlie Balassi was safe on Barisoff's boot at third.

Kubiak and Palmer followed with singles to score one run and Marshall went to the showers with Conant coming in from the bullpen.

Wilson drew a walk to load the bags. Jensen got a fat pitch and the ball went out of the park moving the A's ahead 9 to 7.

Second baseman Samcoff's error, a fielder's choice and Wilson's third hit of the night gave the A's their 10th run in the eighth.

Sharing hitting honors with Wilson was Jensen who picked up three for five. Palmer, Morgan and Buccola each picked up a pair of safeties with the former driving in two runs.

Tonight will be "fan appreciation night" at the park with the proceedings to start at 7.45.

Southpaw Jim Propst will work on the mound for the A's and Nino Barnise for Bremerton.

The league's nip-and-tuck race between Tacoma and Bremerton was unfolding again today.

Western Gals Stand Good Chance In Olympic Trials

MONTREAL (CP)—If more eastern girls are chosen than western lassies for Canada's track and field Olympic team, it will be largely because the easterners already have four final-trial events sewed up tight.

The western girls, far below the numerical strength of the east in the Friday-and-Saturday meet, have no entries in the 80-metre hurdles, the shot-put and the discus and javelin throws.

Whether the Olympic committee will select all four winners is something else. Probably it won't. At least two of the events, and possibly all, appear headed for winners' marks well below the committee-set Olympic standards.

But from there on watch out for the western girls. Seven of them will do double duty in the 100 and 200 metres, and Elaine Silburn of Victoria has set herself up as a one-girl track team; she is entered in four of eight individual events and is expected to take her turn with the British Columbia relay team.

Elaine's stand-out event appears to be the broad jump. At the zone trials in Vancouver she leaped 17 feet 7½ inches, bettering the Olympic standard by 1½ inches. No other girl in all the zone trials came close to that.

Elaine is also entered in the high jump and in the 100 and 200 metres events.

BETTERED STANDARD

But the high jump honors will likely go to a red-head girl from Kelvington, Sask., Doreen Dredge, who gave the Olympic standard a lusty wallop at the zone trials, clearing the bar at five feet three inches. The standard called for an even five feet.

Shirley Gordon of Vancouver will be heard from in the high jump, too. Her zone effort was five feet three-quarters of an inch. The east's best was four feet 9½ inches, the mark of Mary Provost of Ottawa.

In addition to Elaine, the other western girls in the sprints are Diane Foster, Millie Cheater, Donna Gilmour, all of Vancouver; Pat Jones, New Westminster; and Phyllis Cooper and Betty Mitchell of Winnipeg.

hitters with a single, triple and home run in four trips.

Berlyn Hodges with three singles in four trips and Jim Harford with two singles and a double were other leading stick-ers in the Boosters' 12-hit attack on two Pitzer & Nex hurlers.

Tomorrow night Pitzer & Nex meet Eagles at Macdonald Park at 7.

Israel Athletes Not Invited To Olympiad

Betting Displays Marked Increase At Lansdowne Track

VANCOUVER (CP)—Despite a dull day and a soggy track, turf fans turned out at Lansdowne Park's seventh day of racing Wednesday in record numbers.

Although the mutual handle continued low, yesterday's take of $86,618 indicated a recovery is in sight.

E. G. Rossall's Count Carlos and Red Chalk paid the highest prices of the day. In the fourth, Count Carlos with William Slocum aboard, finished a neck ahead of Miss Exilda to pay $34.40, $20.50 and $7.10. George Godley brought Red Chalk home by a length in the fifth to pay $33.35, $12.20 and $7.70.

The Midlothian Stables scored a double victory and Vancouver jockey, Sid Martin, boosted his season's total to nine wins. In the first Martin brought in Balerna, and the second, Barton. Both horses were favorites.

Morrison Scores Victory In Willingdon Golf Test

Bill McColl, Victoria, left, congratulates Hugh Morrison, Vancouver, on his victory yesterday in their 72-hole medal test for the fifth berth on British Columbia's Willingdon Cup team.

Posting identical scores of 71 over both Victoria and Uplands Golf Clubs, Morrison defeated McColl, Colwood member, by 16 strokes. The cup team leaves for the east tomorrow.

Morrison, who took a four-stroke lead in the first 36 holes played at Vancouver, saw McColl tie the match at the third hole at Oak Bay in the morning round yesterday and then came back to go out in front at the fifth to two strokes. From then on he was never headed as he fired steady golf to McColl's erratic variety.

Name Pitching Staffs For All-Star Baseball

CHICAGO (AP)—The sides were chosen for the major league's 15th all-star baseball game at St. Louis Tuesday with completion today of the domineering American League's full squad.

The hotshots from the junior circuit, 2 to 1 winners at Wrigley Field in Chicago last year, will be slugging for their 11th decision over the National Leaguers.

Manager Bucky Harris rounded out his 25-player American roster by nominating eight pitchers and nine replacements for the starters named at the other eight positions in a poll of fans across the United States.

The National League's squad was marshaled to full battle size yesterday by manager Leo Durocher, who elected only six pitchers—two under par for the all-star course. Brooklyn's Lippy took up the slack by picking four third basemen instead of the customary pair.

Pilot Harris' own New York Yankees grabbed the most American all-star berths—six—including pitchers Vic Raschi and Joe Page, the perennial reliever.

The rip-roarin' Cleveland Indians placed five solid candidates, among them the hurling "bobby" twins, Feller and Lemon.

The American pitching staff is neat but not gaudy. Lemon and Lefty Hal Newhouser of Detroit lead the league's tossers in victories, each with a dozen verdicts.

Yankee Joe DiMaggio, centre fielder, will be playing his ninth all-star game in 10 nominations (he missed the 1946 game). Terrible Ted Williams of Boston will be in left field with a .500 batting average and nine R.B.I.'s in five previous games.

The two managers must play the starting line-ups for the first three innings. None of the

The 3 to 2 victory evened the series at a game apiece and again moved the Oaks into a virtual first-place tie, a mere three percentage points back of the Seals.

Werle, southpaw stylist, had a sixth shutout going into the ninth. Then four hits—with Ernie Lombardi's double and Ray Hamrick's single the key blows—tied the score at 2-1.

In the 10th, two singles and a walk loaded the bases with one away. Werle couldn't find the plate to Floyd Christopher, and Cookie Lavagetto—the goat of Tuesday's series opener—was forced home with the deciding

The Angels bobbed back into a third-place tie with San Diego. The Padres' big bats were silenced by Portland righthander Jim Tote, 3 to 0.

The debut of Sacramento's 18-year-old Richie Myers went awry as the youngster walked seven Seattle batters and gave up seven hits in less than four frames. The Rainiers' Herb Karpel breezed from there to an 11 to 1 victory.

England Opens Weakly In Third Test Cricket Match

MANCHESTER, Eng. (Reuter)—England made a bad start in the third cricket test match against Australia at Old Trafford Grounds today. With only 57 runs on the board at lunch, both Cyril Washbrook and George Emmett, England's new opening pair, were back in the pavilion.

Denis Compton was forced to retire after he cut his forehead when playing a low ball from Ray Lindwall.

A crowd of about 35,000 saw Washbrook and Emmett make a shaky start, but they gradually settled down. Just when Washbrook looked set, however, he missed a full toss from Bill Johnston and was bowled middle stump for 11.

More misfortune for England followed quickly, for six runs later Emmett, playing in his first test, gave Barnes an easy catch at short leg off Lindwall, after making 10.

Bill Edrich and Compton, Middlesex pair, then came together and the score stood at 32 when Compton hooked a short, rising no-ball from Lindwall into his face.

DEFEND STRONGLY

Jack Crapp, making his test debut, joined Edrich and the pair, battling doubly, held on until lunch. Both defended with great resolution, being content to keep their wickets intact, and maiden followed maiden.

So subdued was Edrich that

Fall Exhibition Canceled Due To Fire Regulations

The British Columbia Agricultural Association's fair, scheduled for Sept. 11-18 at the Willows has been canceled.

This announcement was made Wednesday by Ed. Whyte, president of the association, which, with the exception of years during the two world wars, and since 1945, has held exhibitions of livestock, poultry and industrial products for 80 years.

Demand of the provincial fire marshal that buildings be put in a safe condition as to fire exits, wiring and water lines were responsible for the cancellation.

More Tourists Than Ever Before In City During Past Six Months

Tourist traffic through the port of Victoria during the first half of this year is up 11.5 per cent over the first six months of last year, which was itself a record period, George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, announced this morning after a study of statistical information supplied him by Gerald Yardley, collector of customs.

From Jan. 1 until June 30, customs men here passed 10,074 foreign licensed automobiles, carrying 26,716 passengers, in and out of Canada.

During the same six-month period in 1947, the number of foreign cars handled in this port was 9,025 and their passengers totaled 23,840.

Canadian cars going to or returning from the United States through Victoria during the six-month period ending June 30 amounted to 2,202. They carried a total of 5,812 passengers.

"This was a 15 per cent increase over 1947," Mr. Warren said, "when 1,927 Canadian cars, bearing 4,876 passengers, were handled by customs men in this port."

LOWER IN JUNE

The number of foreign cars passing through Victoria during June of this year was slightly below the figure for June, 1947.

Mr. Warren attributed this to much publicity abroad concerning flood conditions in this province.

He noted, however, that the number of foreign cars entering this port during the month was 23,062, just four less than in June, 1947. The number of cars leaving through this port was down, however, making the total of both incoming and outgoing cars lower.

Mr. Warren said B.C.'s "pink slip" regulations are still affecting the tourist trade here.

"Cars from 44 of the American states were seen on Victoria streets last month as well as cars from Hawaii, Panama and Alaska," Mr. Warren said. "Of all the states, California was best represented with 846."

"In addition, 17 bicycles from the State of Washington were brought into Victoria by cycling tourists."

Mystery Phone Calls Annoy Householders

Mysterious telephone calls, possibly from some practical joker with a distorted sense of humor are taking a strain on the nerves of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Gollob, 1802 Oak Bay Avenue.

The calls have come at intervals every day for the last month and the person at the other end keeps the phone ringing until it is answered. Then hangs up without replying. "This has been happening for about a month," says Mr. Gollob. "At first we thought it might be thieves trying to find out when the house was empty."

Mr. Gollob has sought the help of the police and the telephone company to trace the source of the annoyance.

Died From Injuries Suffered In Fall

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury today at an inquest in the Curry Funeral Home into the death of Frank Mason, 67 years old, 420 Vancouver Street, on July 6.

Evidence was that Mr. Mason on April 27 was working on the construction of a new home on Robin Lane, Saanich, and fell from the roof to the ground.

He suffered head injuries, but was released from Jubilee Hospital in May. He returned to the same hospital on June 27 due to trouble from the same injury and died last Tuesday, the jury heard.

The doctor who attended him said death was due to the head injuries.

Operations Assure Baby Partial Sight

The Lions Club's "Baby Lillian," 18-month-old Victoria child, who was born blind, will be able to see through her left eye with the aid of glasses, David Maharey, chairman of the Lions welfare committee, has announced.

Having undergone a series of operations by a city eye specialist, the baby is assured of some sight in the left eye, Mr. Maharey said. There will be no sight in the right, however.

"Baby Lillian" will be out of hospital by the end of the week, but returns in about a month's time for a final operation. Hospital expenses are being met by the Lions Club.

Bremerton Plaver Not Seriously Hurt

Lyle Palmer, Bremerton outfielder who was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital last night after being knocked unconscious in a collision with a teammate, during the W.I.L. game between the Jacks and Victoria, suffered no serious injuries.

Dr. D. A. Hewitt reported today Palmer was suffering from badly wrenched muscles in his neck and would be out of the line up for three or four days.

Wives' Protection Act Described As Retrograde Step

Passage of the "Wives' Protection Act" at the last session of the Provincial Legislature was described as a "retrograde step," in the report of committee on civil justice submitted today to the annual meeting of the B.C. Section, Canadian Bar Association.

Walter S. Owen, K.C., chairman, said the committee felt that the legal profession should make its views known to the Attorney-General regarding the act.

"It is a matter of particular concern to us that this act was passed without any consultation with the various bar associations," he said. "The Attorney-General has been so co-operative as a general rule that we find cause to regret more his oversight in this regard."

CODE REVISION

The committee on criminal justice, headed by T. G. Norris, K.C., urged a complete revision of the Criminal Code and the setting up of a commission to make the revision.

While far-reaching and important amendments to the code were enacted at the last session of the federal parliament, Mr. Norris said a great deal still remained to be done.

Parking Meter Violations Drop

Motorists in the city appear to have been a lot more liberal of late in feeding nickels and pennies in parking meters. This is indicated in the low court lists for parking meter violations. On Wednesday only 13 persons paid the $1 fine and today the list was two less. Some time ago the parking meter infractions used to reach into the 30's and 40's daily.

Suspended Sentence On Cheque Charges

Mrs. R. E. Rife, who Wednesday in city police court pleaded guilty to two counts of obtaining money by worthless cheques, was given a suspended sentence by Magistrate H. C. Hall today.

She was ordered to post a $250 bond to be of good behavior for six months.

Hospital Campaign Total At $13,000

The Strathcona Wing of the Royal Jubilee Hospital is completely cleaned out inside and ready for conversion into a children's ward, reported Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, medical superintendent Wednesday.

To date $13,000 of the $40,000 objective in the campaign has been raised. "But we still need more from local sources, and will welcome any donations," said Dr. Anderson.

He added that construction work on the wing will begin as soon as possible and finances permitting, would continue until completion, possibly by next fall.

The Children's Ward Auxiliary of the hospital will further aid the drive by holding a tag day. Additional assistance of the Province's government will also be sought.

Need Volleyballs

Saanich Recreational Council today appealed for assistance in providing equipment for the children at playgrounds in the municipality.

Three volleyballs are needed most, officials reported and they asked that anyone who can help them in their need, contact the secretary by telephoning B 1090.

Canadian Bar Urged To Take Action For Bill Of Rights

A Bill of Rights for the Canadian people was urged by A. C. DesBrisay, K.C., chairman of the civil liberties committee, at the annual meeting of the B.C. Section, Canadian Bar Association, which opened at the Empress Hotel today.

Mr. DesBrisay urged the association to take steps to bring home to Canadians "the menace they are faced with by reason of any invasion of their civil liberties."

"It is the opinion of this committee that the rights of the individual citizen should be written into the constitution," he stated.

He said the committee was not unmindful that there was a school of thought which held that personal freedoms were inherent in the law and hence did not require statutory protection. These people, he said, felt that the Magna Charta, the Habeas Corpus Act and the Bill of Rights of

Wins New Car On Eve Of Vacation

Leo E. Evenden, credit manager of the Hudson's Bay Company store here, learned on the eve of his annual summer vacation that he is the winner of a new Chevrolet fleetline sports sedan.

"And boy, is it a nice feeling!" was his enthusiastic comment when contacted today following the announcement of prize winners in the May 24 Celebrations' Association essay contest for associate members.

Mr. Evenden, whose home is at 988 Victoria Avenue, said he starts his vacation Saturday but he and his wife had made no definite plans on what they would do.

"This certainly will allow us to make some," he said.

He is going to keep the car "for the time being anyway." It is two years since he last owned one.

Mrs. Evenden is "up in the air" over their good fortune. "Isn't it wonderful?" she exclaimed over the telephone to the Victoria Daily Times.

Victoria To Rescue When Vancouver Puss Abandons Two Babies

A good-neighbor act involving Vancouver and Victoria is reported by the S.P.C.A.

A Vancouver family coming here for a vacation, settled their mother cat and her two kittens in a cardboard box for the trip across the strait.

On arrival, they discovered the mother had escaped from the box, deserting her two-week-old babies.

Local S.P.C.A. officials came to the rescue, recalling that on the previous day, kittens were taken from a mother cat in a Victoria home. She had been left with only one.

Owners of the cat welcomed the abandoned kittens, but more important, the mother accepted them as her own.

Meanwhile efforts are being continued to locate the real mother. The owners believe she made her escape before the boat left Vancouver. She did not realize then that Victoria isn't too bad a place.

200 Attend Picnic Of First Baptist

More than 200 sat down to a picnic supper at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Saanich, Wednesday afternoon, following arrival by chartered buses of the Church School group and visitors of First Baptist Church and Royal Oak Baptist Sunday School.

Rev. G. R. Easter called for singing of Grace and gave announcements of the Daily Vocation Bible School, to be held for children from 3 to 12 years of age, from July 19 to 30. School will be held each morning from 9 to 11:30.

Supper arrangements for the picnic were in charge of Misses Nora Gison and Doreen Waller, assisted by members of the teaching staff. Games were arranged for the younger children by Mesdames Grant Johnston, R. Flint, and S. Cameron while W. Smith and Ryland Huntley took charge of races. Mrs. W. W. McGill, Miss C. Hardie and Miss Lita Hunt, together with the teachers comprised the picnic committee.

For the first time in his screen career, Edgar Bergen is seen without his faithful wooden-head, Charlie McCarthy, in RKO Radio's "I Remember Mama," currently at the Capitol Theatre.

The famous ventriloquist portrays a timid little Norwegian undertaker in the George Stevens production and, as he says,

"Charlie thinks it's high time I learned to support myself." Irene Dunne co-stars with Barbara Bel Geddes, Oscar Homolka and Philip Dorn in the engaging story of a Scandinavian family in San Francisco some 40 years ago.

Later Theatre Opening
Now Popular In London

By STUART UNDERHILL

LONDON (CP)—The first breaches have appeared in London's rigid system of early theatre openings.

For three years theatre managers have clung to the wartime custom of starting at 7 p.m. or earlier. Now they're beginning to experiment with later curtains.

One theatre, the Criterion, has an 8.30 start for its light-hearted farce called "Travelers Joy." At least eight others have decided to begin at 8 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays, after matinee performances.

RESTAURANTS GLAD

Restaurant managers welcomed the new trend.

"Since the war, people have had no time to dine before going to the theatre," said one. "They sit in acute discomfort, accompanying the actors with the rumbling of their empty stomachs."

"After the theatre they either dash for home or else gallop to a restaurant and wolf a hurried meal before it closes."

Transport ministry officials are all in favor of theatres starting later. During the war, when bombs were dropping, it was a good idea for people to get home early. That urgency has gone, and crowds coming into town for 6.30 or 7 o'clock shows get in the way of workers heading home.

It's hard to understand why theatre managers have clung for so long to early openings, unless they felt their patrons had fallen into the habit and didn't want to change.

TESTED SHOWS BEST

Little new has come to the London stage in recent weeks, the public sticking to tried and true musical successes like "Annie Get Your Gun," "Oklahoma!" and Sir C. B. Cochran's "Bless the Bride."

One of the few newcomers is Aldous Huxley's "The Gioconda Smile," the grim story of a philandering man who was almost hanged for a murder committed by an infatuated woman. Movie actor Clide Brook has a leading role in it.

This, and other current successes, led theatre critic Beverly Baxter to remark there is not one London play in which the central female character can be described as a good woman in the noble sense.

ODEON THEATRE

"Casbah," the exciting new picture which opened yesterday at the Odeon Theatre is a threat both to the ear and to the eye. It is a Universal-International presentation starring Yvonne De Carlo, Tony Martin, Peter Lorre and introducing the lovely new Swedish actress, Marta Toren.

In throbbing action the film runs smoothly through the gamut of soul-searing romance, breathless suspense, tenebrous melodies and a dramatic plot.

ATLAS THEATRE

Billy Mauch, who with his twin brother, Bobby, was a one-time star at Warner Bros., returned to the studio for an important supporting role in "That Hagen Girl," now being shown at the Atlas Theatre, which Peter Godfrey has directed with Ronald Reagan and Shirley Temple.

The Mauchs are remembered from "The Prince and the Pauper," the "Penrod" series and other film hits. During their army service, the boys appeared in "Winged Victory," the Air Corps show which toured.

DeMille Epic Now Showing At Rio

The most spectacular film ever produced by the world's greatest maker of spectacles, Cecil B. DeMille, is "The Crusades," a Paramount attraction now at Rio Theatre. The film has Academy award winner Loretta Young heading the biggest cast in movie history.

DeMille, who made "The Ten Commandments," "The Sign of the Cross," "Cleopatra," "Unconquered," and other magnificent screen epics, is considered by many to have created his most enduring film masterpiece in "The Crusades."

This stirring story of 12th century Christendom's struggle to recapture the Holy Land from the Saracens is filmed on an overwhelming scale, with a cast numbering 10,000 and back-grounds of the most massive proportions ever conceived in Hollywood.

"The Crusades" also features Henry Wilcoxon, Ian Keith, Katherine DeMille and C. Aubrey Smith.

Spectacular Color Film Now At York

Paramount has appropriately endowed its spectacular technicolor adventure-romance, which opened today at the York Theatre, with the all-encompassing title of "California."

"California," with its cast of thousands topped by a brilliant trio, Ray Milland, Barbara Stanwyck and Barry Fitzgerald; its exciting love story told against an equally thrilling background of the brawling, reckless days when the state of California was born; and its awe-inspiring panorama vividly everything colorful that the name conjures up in the mind.

Turning in supporting performances that match the excellence of the stars are George Coulouris, Albert Dekker, Anthony Quinn and Frank Faylen.

John Farrow's direction is swiftly paced, with the Farrow penchant for violent emotion and dramatic action very much in evidence.

Margaret O'Brien Not To Retire From Screen As Planned

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It looks like a life-long acting career for Margaret O'Brien.

The talented tot's mother had hoped to retire Margaret from the screen during the in-between years, but the little gal is putting up a fight. She turns on the tears whenever a retirement is mentioned, and it now appears Margaret will stay in pictures.

She plans to bridge the awkward period by appearing in a film series based on "Violet," the super-intelligent moppet. Margaret herself sold boss Louis B. Mayer on the character.

Maggie, now 11, is maturing so fast that her mother has to prompt her not to act sophisticated. Mrs. O'Brien has laid down one hard and fast rule: No dates until Maggie is 15.

THINGS I NEVER EXPECT TO SEE

Ginger Rogers and Larry Parks having a chummy chat about politics. . . David O. Selznick quietly announcing his new film as "a pretty good picture." . . Gene Autry and Roy Rogers striding arm-in-arm down Hollywood boulevard.

Paulette Goddard Society Gambler In Royal Picture

"Hazard," Paramount's comedy about a girl who'd bet on anything including herself, started today at the Royal Theatre, with co-stars Paulette Goddard and MacDonald Carey in the top roles, supported by Fred Clark, Stanley Clements, Frank Faylen and Maxie Rosenbloom.

Miss Goddard will be seen as the society girl who has gambled all her money away and who stakes herself on the cut of a card. She loses, then refuses to live up to her part of the bargain.

When she runs away, Clark, the gambler, sets a private detective on her trail to bring her back. Carey plays the detective. Complications develop between the two men when Carey and Miss Goddard fall in love during their cross-country hide-and-seek adventure.

George Marshall directed.

A leading favorite for the last 30 years, Edgar Rice Burroughs' character of Tarzan has appeared in 20 pictures during that time.

His current film adventure is "Tarzan and the Mermaids," Sol Lesser's newest offering in which Johnny Weissmuller and Brenda Joyce are co-starred and Linda Christian featured.

The film is now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

The DOCTOR Says:

COOKING PORK THOROUGHLY IS BEST TRICHINOSIS SAFEGUARD

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Trichinosis is a disease caused by a tiny animal parasite which is called trichinella spiralis. This disease is much more important than has been generally realized. Surveys in various localities indicate that from about one person in five has been infected.

Human beings catch trichinosis in most cases from eating pork which has not been cooked well enough to destroy the parasites.

DISEASE SYMPTOMS

When live trichinae are swallowed they pass through the wall of the intestines and are carried to the muscles throughout the body. During the first week following the swallowing of infected meat, the worms develop in the intestines. There they may produce nausea and vomiting and watery diarrhea. Sometimes abdominal pain is present.

About the ninth or tenth day the trichinae begin to invade the muscles. Here if there are enough of them, they produce muscular tenderness, especially in the arms and legs. Sometimes a reddish rash on the skin develops during this stage.

There is often fever. Puffiness and swelling of the face, especially around the eyes, is common. In severe cases the patient becomes anemic and loses weight.

At present the best safeguard against trichinosis is to cook all pork products thoroughly. QUESTION: At times I have a blurriness which seems to affect my vision. What would cause this?

ANSWER: There are so many causes for blurred vision that it is impossible to list them. Have an eye examination immediately.

MAN RIDES ON A WHALE

WHEN I WAS A LAD, I went to sea, on my grandfather's ship—a facsimile. Of a beautiful yacht, with its graceful prow, as a lighthouse tender it used to plow. Up the west coast, to many locations, and sometimes visiting... whaling stations. And I've often told, our dotters the tale, of how at one station... I rode a whale. Never admitting, as they listened in bed, the mammal was floating... definitely dead. You'd float to sleep on a mattress like this, at 29 bucks it's spinal bliss. Full of springs and insulated, to this bedroom suite... it's perfectly mated. I even had a snap to show a landlubber, I was actually there... right on the blubber. But NOW I've read of a Cape Cod man, who rode a whale... like a superman. As he was shuttled, right out of his fishing dory, & emerging the victor... says this story. He dug his fingers into the flesh, with the fleeing mountain... he kept abreast. Only casting off... when the whale blew a fountain, and the lower depths swallowed this mountain. 'Tis a WHALE OF A STORY... they're calling it that, as under his nails, he proved it with fat. Plus the hole in the dory where the whale hit, at the moment he jumped... on top of it. AT THIS davenport suite we KNOW you'd jump, beauty is here... a great big hunk. It's a "Supersoft," on an old rose ground, as U sink, a sigh you'll "sound." Just $185 is all we need, so come on down and take a bead. Then the whale and the man, careened on a tac, with the fisherman clinging to its slippery back. This is the new story of this whale, a lusty... gusty... salty tale. And my daughters said as around me they sat, "I bet YOUR whale daddy... was bigger than THAT." "Well," I replied, "I'll tell you once more, of the whale I rode off the west shore. And here my darlings is the way it goes, 'when I was a lad... Ah... THAR SHE BLOWS.'"

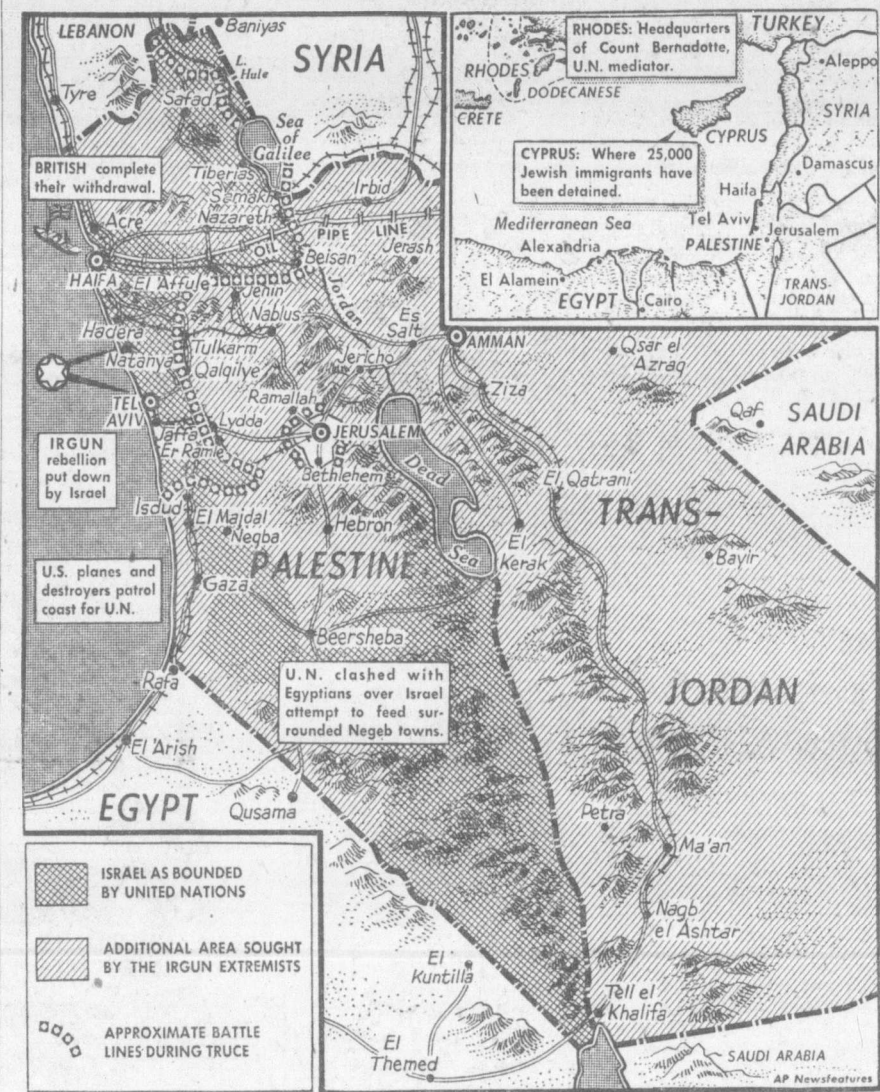

IRON A SHIRT in 4 minutes... we have one only automatic GLADIRON... it's made by "THOR"... it's at HUMBER'S FURNITURE WAREHOUSE... cor. Langley and lower View. It's $129.50.

Palestine's Truce Ends Tomorrow

By ROBERT N. COOL

Two months ago experts asked if the Jews would fight for Israel. Now the question increasingly seems to be whether the Arabs have the unity of purpose and the determination to renew the war against Israel.

In all conflicts with Palestine Arabs the Israelis achieved swift success, despite the weight of numbers against them. There, for the answer seems to rest largely with King Abdullah's Arab Legion.

The map shows the situation as the end neared of the one-month truce arranged by Count Bernadotte. The truce concludes tomorrow.

TRUCE AIDED JEWS Here are some arguments for the view that the truce period strengthened the Jews rather than the Arabs:

1. Israel is one month older as a going concern. Each day of survival after it was proclaimed in mid-May has meant a lot in terms of prestige and organization.

2. Britain completed its withdrawal from Palestine at the end of June, a full month ahead of schedule. The Israelis said British forces were aiding the Arabs and impeding the Jews. The Arab government expressed their chagrin by protesting against Britain's accelerated departure. The announcement that Britain and the United States have co-ordinated their conflicting mid-east policies also seems to hold some promise for Israel, since Arab power is pretty much dependent on British support. The United States was the first to recognize the new Jewish nation.

3. Israel's government apparently weathered a dangerous internal crisis during the initial truce period. On June 23 Jewish Leumi tried to land a truce-violating munitions ship at Tel Aviv. The government challenged it with gunfire. A few days earlier it had balked at a similar attempt by the same vessel farther up the coast. Israel's decisive action brought a cabinet crisis and the threat of civil war. Numerically small, the Irgun represents extremist elements which actively fought the British and the Trans-Jordan. In putting down the uprising the moderate Israel government sealed a treacherous chasm while its war with the Arabs was temporarily suspended. Now Irgun leaders have pledged their co-operation.

Anglican Bishops Debate Many Topics

LONDON (CP)—More than 300 bishops speaking almost every known language are meeting in the great hall of Lambeth Palace, just across the Thames from Westminster.

Their topic, broadly speaking, is how to restore the broken fabric of civilized life. But it is split into a dozen different discussions such as marriage discipline, high cost of living, state control, international order and human rights, ideals and forms of worship.

The Lambeth Conference is, however, a private affair and nothing will be known until the encyclical letter is published at the conclusion of the five-week meeting.

Archbishop George Kingston of Nova Scotia is one of many who believe the conference will be productive of valuable ideas for the future guidance of the Anglican Church.

Says Russ Troops Move In Romania

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Il Corriere Lombardo printed an unconfirmed dispatch today saying Russian motorized troops have made important moves in Romania since Monday.

The dispatch, from the Trieste free territory, said the Russian troops "would go into action immediately before or after the Yugoslav Communist Congress opens July 21 in Belgrade."
